

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

First of all I bow my head in humility before the almighty for having given me strength to undertake this research project. Then I thank my beloved parents from whom I drew all my inspiration and motivation to work on this research project.

My sincerest thanks are to my esteemed teacher and supervisor, Professor Dr. N.S.Tung, Head of the Department of Psychology, Guru Nanak Dev University, Amritsar whose expert guidance, very kind and valuable help and understanding nature helped me in the extension of this study. His profoundly imaginative approach has given me many new ideas regarding my research.

I acknowledge with thanks the help extended by former Head Dr. Davinder Singh. His help and support was always a source of encouragement and important to me. I also must thank Dr. Suninder Tung, Dr. Sunita Gupta and Dr. Rajinder Kaur and other esteemed teachers of my department for their help and guidance.

I am extremely grateful to librarian Paramjit Singh, lab attendant Joginder Singh and Kishan Pal Singh and office in charge Nachattar Singh for their encouragement and help they rendered during my research work.

I would be failing in my duty if I don't acknowledge sincerely my loving husband for his constant help, encouragement and the faith he bestowed upon me. My deepest gratitude to my brother and sisters for the love, support and encouragement I got from them.

Finally I sincerely thank my father in law and mother in law whose warmth and kindness was a regular source of inspiration for me.
