FORWARD

I express my deep sense of gratitude to Dr. P.S. Ghare, Head, Department of Political Science, People's College, Nanded; who guided me throughout this research work for more than three years. From the selection of the topic for research work to the completion of this thesis, he guided me at every stage. Without his guidance this thesis would never have been completed.

I am very much thankful to Dr. Mrs. Tarabai Paranjape, Principal, People's College, Nanded and the Library staff which rendered all the help I needed.

I also thank my colleagues in school, where I am working as a teacher, and particularly Shri. K.L. Vyapari, G.N. Namle and Mrs. Shakuntalabai Karle; others include Shri. Gangaprasadji Agrawal, Ibrahim and Ajay Lalpotu. My mother Yamunabai Davaray gave me encouragement. A large number of students - both boys and girls - were very much helpful to me in carrying out the interviews in a number of villages. Encouragement given to me by my family members at Katneshwar was an asset to me. I thank them all for the help and encouragement they have given to me. I am also thankful to Sri. S.N. Kulkarni, who typed this thesis.

DATE: 8-1-1985

KUSUM D. DAVARAY