Declaration

I hereby declare that the thesis entitled Manpower Utilization in the University Libraries of Kerala: An Evaluation is a true record of research work carried out by me and that it does not form the basis for the award of any Degree, Fellowship, Associateship, Fellowship or other similar title of any University.

To

the memory of

Acknowledgements

I am most grateful to my guide Dr. G. Devarajan, Professor and Head, Department of Library and Information Science, University of Kerala for his ingenious suggestions and dynamic criticism which enabled me to focus my attention on the central problem of research whenever I am in a dither. He was kind enough to agree to supervise the work which he did in record time, in spite of his hectic schedule.

I started my research work under the guidance of Prof. K.A. Isaac, the doyen of Library and Information Science profession, but his sudden demise left a void in my research work also. The thesis is built up on the same foundation laid by him. I can only pay homage to him by dedicating this work to him.

I acknowledge with thanks the encouragement and support given by my colleagues in the Department of Library and Information Science. The encouragement came in the form of constant prods from Smt. K.K Lailitha Bai, who is my teacher also, constructive suggestions and help from Sri. M. Varghese and inspiration from Dr. A. Gopikuttan. Smt. C. Jalajakumari, Librarian of the Department and Sri. N. Shashi, Smt. S. Prasannakumari and Sri. S. Sudarsanan, my co-workers in the Office need special mention.

All the staff members of the five university libraries – Kerala, Calicut, Cochin, M.G. and Kerala Agricultural University — whole-heartedly co-operated with me to collect the required data for the study. In fact, there were several occasions when I was really overwhelmed by their eagerness to see my work completed. I am grateful to all of them. However, I have to specifically acknowledge the help given by Sri. K.G. Karthikeyan, former Assistant Librarian-in-charge, Calicut University Library, Sri. Abdul Razak, Assistant Librarian-in-charge, Kerala Agricultural University Library, Sri. P.K. Rajendra Kurup, Deputy Librarian, M.G University and Dr. M.D. Baby, former University Librarian, Cochin University Library. I wish to place on record my gratitude to Smt. Santha Devi Antharjanam and Smt. Tanooja, both of CUSAT Library and Sri. J. Suku, and Smt. Mini. G. Pillai, Assistant Librarians of M.G University.

I also wish to offer special thanks to every staff member of the Kerala University Library who used to face my constant probes with a smile. I remember with thanks the help given by my friend Dr. V. Nagarajan Naidu for opening up new vistas of the study and for critical comments. M/s. Norma, Thiruvananthapuram deserves appreciation for the flawless codification of data.

There are umpteen numbers of library professionals, teachers, friends and former students who have shown interest in the study and I can only remember all of them with gratitude. Finally, I must express my obligation to my wife Padmaja and my children for their keen interest and support given at every stage of the work.
