Chapter 1

Introduction

1.1 Background of the study

1.2 Focus of the study

1.3 Conceptualisation of knowledge management

1.4 Objectives of the study

1.5 Approach to the study

1.6 Scope of the study

1.7 Structure of the study

Chapter 2

Approach to the study

2.1 Information used for the study

2.2 Tools used for analysis

Chapter 3

Analysis of knowledge management survey

3.1 Knowledge management composite index

3.2 Determinants of knowledge management

Chapter 4

Simulation results

4.1 Introduction

4.2 Simulation runs of each determinant on KM Index

4.3 Simulation runs of two determinants on KM Index

4.4 Simulation runs of three or more determinants on KM Index
Chapter 5

Expert opinion analysis

5.1 Round I

5.2 Round II

Chapter 6

Discussion

6.1 The stage of knowledge management in our context

6.2 Advanced communication facilities accelerates knowledge management

6.3 IT companies should embrace KM for developing competitive edge

6.4 Organization culture – the major hurdle for knowledge development

6.5 Specialised KM teams essential for fast KM implementation

6.6 Development of intellectual capital through knowledge management

6.7 Relevance of Indian culture on knowledge management

6.8 Accountability through timely knowledge audit

6.9 More thrust on knowledge engineering needed

Chapter 7

Summary and Conclusion

7.1 Introduction

7.2 Limitations of the study

7.3 Highlights of the study
