CONTENT

Introduction
1

Chapter - 1
World-View: Meaning and Theory

1.1 Introduction
1.2 Definitions and Meaning
1.3 History of the Concept
1.4 Theory of Concept of World-View
1.5 Speculative Tendencies of World-View
1.5.1 Substance
1.5.1.1 Monism
1.5.1.2 Dualism
1.5.1.3 Pluralism
1.5.1.4 Theism
1.5.2 Concept of Time and Space
1.5.3 Cause and Effect
1.6 An Evaluation

Chapter - 2
Conceiving World-View from Indian Tradition

2.1 Introduction
2.2 Vedic World-View: Nature Mysticism
2.3 Upanisadic World-View: Exploration of the Sacred
2.4 Carvaka World-View: Experiencing Spirit of Matter
2.4.1 Perception: Final Source of Knowledge
2.4.2 Metaphysical Factor
2.4.3 Ethical Concerns
2.5 Jaina World-View: Realizing Asceticism
2.5.1 Epistemology of Jaina World-View
2.5.2 Metaphysical Concerns of Jaina Philosophy 48
2.5.3 Ethical Concerns of Jaina World-View 50

2.6 Buddhist World-View: Pure Silence 51
2.6.1 Theory of Dependent Origination 52
2.6.2 Doctrine of Universal Change 53
2.6.3 Non-existence of Soul 53
2.6.4 Madhyamika or Sunyavada 54
2.6.5 The Yogacharya or Vigayanavada 54
2.6.6 The Sautrantika School 54
2.6.7 Vaibhasika School 55

2.7 World-View of Six Systems of Indian Philosophy 55
2.7.1 Nyaya: Scale for Knowledge 55
2.7.2 Vaisesika: Highlighting the Particular 57
2.7.3 Sankhya: Probe of Duality 59
2.7.4 Yoga: Formation of Transparent Body 61
2.7.5 Mimansa: Ritualistic Attitude 63
2.7.6 Vedanta: Framing Metaphysics for Vedic Tradition 65

2.8 Conclusion 70

Chapter - 3
Interactive Dynamics of Sikh World-View:
Man, Ultimate Reality and World

3.1 Concept of Man: Introduction 73
3.1.1 Body 74
3.1.1.1 Body and the Sacred 75
3.1.2 Mind 77
3.1.2.1 Function of Mind 79
3.1.2.2 Interaction between Mind and Body 80
3.1.3 Soul (Spirit) 80
3.1.3.1 Nam-Simran 83
3.1.3.2 Karma 84
3.1.3.3 Moksha 87
3.1.3.4 The Man: Gurmukh

3.2 Ultimate Reality
   3.2.1 Problem of Determinate and Indeterminate Forms
   3.2.2 Nature of God

3.3 The World
   3.3.1 Sacred and Profane: Where the problem lies?
   3.3.2 Cosmology
   3.3.3 Genesis
   3.3.4 Creation and Dissolution
   3.3.5 Role of Nature

3.4 Conclusion

Chapter - 4
Existential Context of Sikh World-View:
Society, Polity and Economy

4.1 Social Dimension: Introduction
   4.1.1 Indian Society: A Brief Survey
   4.1.2 Texture of Sikh Society: Historical Background
   4.1.3 Doctrinal Basis of Sikh Society
      4.1.3.1 Household Life
      4.1.3.2 Gender Equality
      4.1.3.3 Role and Status of Women in the Sikh Society
   4.1.4 Institutional Foundations of Sikh Society
      4.1.4.1 Sangat
      4.1.4.2 Langar: Framing a Pattern for Social Equality
      4.1.4.3 Gurdwara
      4.1.4.4 Way of Worship
   4.1.5 Khalsa Code of Conduct and Its Social Context

4.2 Political Dimension: Significance and Indian Perspective
   4.2.1 Religion, State and Modern Democracy
   4.2.2 Attitude of the Sikh Gurus towards State
   4.2.3 Nature of Sikh Polity
4.2.4 Guru Nanak and Polity 139
4.2.5 Doctrinal Basis of Political Dimension 142
  4.2.5.1 Freedom 142
  4.2.5.2 Justice 144
  4.2.5.3 Miri-Piri 146
4.2.6 Institutional Foundations of Sikh Polity 147
  4.2.6.1 Triad of Sangat-Khalsa-Panj Pyaras 147
  4.2.6.2 Institutions of Sarbat Khalsa and Gurmata 149
4.2.7 Political Ideas and Historical Growth of Sikhism 152
  4.2.7.1 Idea of Sikh State 152
    4.2.7.1.1 Relation between State and Society 153
    4.2.7.1.2 Objectives of Ideal State 155
  4.2.7.2 Concept of Ruler 157
    4.2.7.2.1 Raja-Yogi as a True Ruler 159
4.2.8 Akal Takhat: Symbol of the Sikh Polity 160
4.3 Economic Dimension of the Sikh World-View 163
  4.3.1 Indian Context of Economy 164
  4.3.2 Doctrinal Assumptions of the Sikh Economy 166
  4.3.3 Organization of Economic Resources 168
  4.3.4 Management and Mode of Investment 170
  4.3.5 Purpose of Economy 171
  4.3.6 Concept of Capital 173
  4.3.7 Langar: Reflections on Sikh Economy 175
4.4 Conclusion 177

Chapter - 5
Futurology of Sikh World-View

5.1 Introduction 187
5.2 Secularism 190
5.3 Globalization 193
5.4 Ecological Imbalance and Environmental Concern 194
5.5 Problem of Religious Pluralism and Multiculturalism 200
5.6 Inter-Faith Dialogue 202
5.7 Identity Crisis 205
5.8 Problem of Fundamentalism and Human Rights 209
5.9 Holistic and Universal Vision 212
5.10 Empowerment of Woman 217
5.11 Concern for Subaltern 220
5.12 Production and Distribution of Resources 222
5.13 Conclusion 227

Retrospect 233

Bibliography 242