This research has been a challenging, exciting but an enjoyable journey during which several of my friends, well wishers, colleagues and family members supported and encouraged me all the time.

Doing research has been an experience. After the completion of this project report I am all happy to express my gratitude to those without whom this research would not have been possible.

First, I would like to express my heartfelt appreciation of guide, friend and philosopher Dr B S Valke, Director, MVP Samaj’s Academy for Communication in English and Former Chairman, Board of Studies in English, Pune University. The help and guidance he offered, the way he encouraged during the moments of frustration, the beautiful moments when I shared academic discussions, his feeling of love for me and the strict discipline are all beyond words.
