‘No mountain too high, no bridge too far, no detail unimportant, my spirit of relentless inquiry has enabled me to dig out and bring spectacular, new destinations, spanning the length and breadth of Regulated Markets. In the course, it is the privileged duty of mine to acknowledge all the laudable persons who instilled spirit and supported my endeavour.

Simple words of gratitude are not sufficient to address my Research Director and Teacher Prof. T. Uma Maheswara Rao, M.Com., M.B.A., M.Sc (Psy), M.A (Socio), M.A. (Phil), B.L., Ph.D, Dean, Faculty of Commerce and Management Studies, Principal, Acharya Nagarjuna University College of Arts, Commerce & Law, Nagarjuna Nagar who is the mentor and guide and made me a better individual in the sense of Research by showing me the direction and destiny to Research. I must confess that I am privileged to have got such a great person as Research Director who gave platform to nurture my dreams and aspirations.

I shall always remain obliged to all my teachers of Commerce and Management Studies of Nagarjuna University Campus College for their tutelage and blessings.

I profusely thank the Management Committee of Agricultural Market Committee, Duggirala, Administrative and Supervisory cadre staff and above all the farmers and traders who filled words to the pages of my research book.

It would be a great sin on my part if I could not memorise my divine parents, D.V. Satyanarayana and D. Suvarna Lakshmi who happened to sow the seed of confidence in me which grew into a big tree. It taught me not only to learn and let learn but be able to communicate my ideas clearly and concisely and steer through all the challenges of Education life.
I am deeply indebted to K.B.N. College, Vijayawada Share Brokers Welfare Association, Sarada Educational Society, Superwhizz who let me remain a feather of their cap of professional staff.

Finally, I feel grateful to acknowledge two wonderful persons of my life, my spouse M. Ramu and daughter Kamakshi Suvarna Koumudi for bestowing me with the gift of personal growth through their tireless and continuous support that too sacrificing many enjoyments when I was rather unmindful of them during the course of my work. The strong foundation of personal growth supported by them through their abundant gifts of love and affection made me able to face every battle of professional world competitively.
