ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

It is my pleasure and privilege to record my sincere and heartiest thanks to my revered teacher and guide Dr. Dalip Kumar Malhotra, Associate Professor under whose consistent guidance, continued encouragement, keen interest and fruitful suggestions I have been able to accomplish the present project. His everlasting affection and sympathetic attitude has been an added source of inspiration.

Thanks are also due to Dr. Sagar Sharma, Professor and Chairman, Department of Psychology of H.P.University, Shimla-5, for his kind co-operation during the tenure of my stay in the department.

Sincere thanks are expressed to Dr. J. Jereth, Associate Professor, Psychology Department of Panjab University, Chandigarh for having rendered his immediate help and kind co-operation beyond the call of duty. I am also thankful to Dr.(Mrs) Shirali, Dr.(Mrs) Anup Sud, Dr. Pirta, all of Psychology Department and Dr. Kulwinder Singh of Education Department of H.P.University, Shimla-5, for having encouraged me from time to time.

I also take this opportunity to express my thanks to Dr. Ajit Singh Rhelia, Dr. Jiwan Kandoria, Dr. K.C. Chaudhry,
Dr. Joginder Singh Khatta, Dr. O.P. Takkar, Dr. Dhaliwal and Dr. Malhi, all from Panjab Agricultural University, Ludhiana for sparing their respective classes for the purpose of collecting data from their students even at the cost of their studies. Thanks are also due to all the subjects who participated in this data collection without which, it would have not been possible to accomplish the present conclusions.

Himachal Pradesh University, Shimla, is thanked for having awarded me a Research Fellowship to carry out the present research work.

In the end, I would like to express my sincere indebtedness to my parents, brothers and other family members who have always encouraged me to attain higher education.

Dated: September, 1987.                  Sudravshan Kumari
                                              ( SUDARSHAN KUMARI )