Acknowledgements

At last by the grace of God here is an opportunity to express my profound sense of gratitude to all those that have inspired, encouraged and helped me in this maiden endeavor.

First of all, I am indebted to Dr. Rajiv Tiwary, Professor and Head of the Department of English, Government Sanskrit College, and Raipur but for whose inspiring guidance and encouragement I would never have completed this thesis.

Dr. Kirti Tiwari, Professor and HoD department of English generously offered her valuable advice, encouragement and help for which I shall always remain grateful to her.

It will be dereliction of duty on my part if I don't express my sincere thanks to Prof. J.P. Mishra, formerly Principal and HoD English, Kalyan Post Graduate College, Bilai, for his valuable suggestions and constant support.

I can never forget the help and moral support received from Dr. Sheo Kumar Agrawal, ex-Professor of Economics, Government Chhattisgarh College, Raipur, and Dr. Ashok Parikh, formerly Principal, Durga Mahavidyalaya, Raipur and Chairman, Chhattisgarh State Private Universities Regulatory Commission, during the moments when I had almost given up the hope of completing this work.

And, although no formalities need be observed within the family, but how the loving support and sacrifice on the part of my affectionate daughter, Harshita and son, Pulkit, as well as my husband C.K.Tiwari be forgotten to be mentioned. And last but not the least I must avail the opportunity to express my gratitude for their blessings of my parents Shri RS Awasthi and Smt. Prema, without whom this research would never have been undertaken.

Raipur,
