AKNOWLEDGEMENT

Learning is the key to happiness in life. I have always believed in its power. It keeps you on your toes and fills with enthusiasm but it is not as simple as it looks. One can learn small things himself but to write a thesis, one needs help from many people.

I have a strong feeling that I got all this support, guidance, encouragement and help because of the blessings of my mother Mrs. Kusum Mishra my sister Miss. Kiran Mishra & my brother Mr. Ravi Kant Mishra. I feel extremely grateful to them for being the constant source of my strength and real cause of every achievement of my life.

I place on record due thanks to my esteemed guide Dr. Ajay Chandrakar, Coordinator and department head Political Science for giving so much thought and attention to the wide range of topics. I will always remain indebted for his motivation, valuable suggestions and excellent guidance given at various stages. He has also helped me in selecting the topic, during the interview and in solving the problems by giving the solutions. Due to his continuous efforts, love and blessings. I’m able to complete the thesis. I will always remain grateful to him and his family members.

I would like to thank Dr. S.S.KHANUJA, the Principal of Durga College, Dr. Sushmita Sen, Dr. Aman Jha for their cooperation in accomplishing the task.

Support of my chacha Shri K.K.Dutta further simplified things for me. Whenever I got stuck in any problem or had hard times, encouragement of my friend Shri Jay Prakesh Sharma proved to be a boon for me. I am also thankful to Mr. Bhawani Shankar Dewangan for his help in compiling this thesis.
