Where milch cattle are properly cared for, civilization advances, lands grow richer, children grow healthier and dogs grow fewer.