Many scholars and friends have helped to complete this monograph. First and above all, I am deeply obliged to my teacher and supervisor, Dr. P.L. Mehra, Head of the Department of Central Asian Studies, Panjab University; it is under his care and guidance that this small work has been completed. Principal Sri Ham Sharma has been very kind and patient with my demands on his time and attention, and from him I have received both help and encouragement on several occasions. In locating raw material, I have been helped by the staff of National Archives of India, New Delhi; Panjab State Archives, Patiala and Jammu and Kashmir State Archives Repository, Jammu. Likewise, I am indebted to the Librarians of National Library, Calcutta; Bengal Asiatic Society Library, Calcutta; Central Archaeological Library, New Delhi; Ranbir Public Library Jammu and Director, Research and Publication Department, Jammu and Kashmir Government, Srinagar. My thanks are due also to the staff of the Panjab University Library and the Librarian, Dwarka Das Library, Chandigarh, for their assistance in the collection of material. For the preparation of two maps, I am indebted to Messrs G. Krishan and R.C. Chandna of the Geography Department, Panjab University, Chandigarh.
