Acknowledgements

I owe a deep thanks to my supervisors who supported me throughout this research work. I would like to thank my supervisor, Dr. R.M. Sharma, Professor, Deptt. of Forensic Science, Punjabi University, Patiala, for his stimulating and enthusiastic thoughts of Forensic Science in general and my research topic in particular that have greatly contributed to my scientific thinking. My special gratitude goes to my co-supervisor, Dr. C.P. Singh, Assistant Director, Physics Division, Forensic Science Laboratory, Govt. of NCT of Delhi, New Delhi. His truly scientific intuition has made him as a constant oasis of ideas in science, which exceptionally inspired and enriched my growth as a student, a researcher and a scientist I want to be.

I express my gratitude to Dr. M.S. Rao, Director cum Chief Forensic Scientist, Directorate of Forensic Science, Ministry of Home Affairs, Government of India for his support in completing this thesis. I am grateful to the Directorate of Forensic Science, Ministry of Home Affairs, Government of India for providing me with fellowship and grants during the research work.

I am highly grateful to Dr. R.S. Verma, Director, Central Forensic Science Laboratory, Chandigarh for providing constant support and facilities without which this thesis would not have been possible. I am thankful to Dr. S.K. Jain, Sh. S.S. Baisoya, Dr. P. Siddambary, Sh. M. Baskar and Sh. Ashok Kapoor of the Central Forensic Science Laboratory, Chandigarh, for their support. The selfless help and support by the Research Associates, Research Fellows and my friends were remarkable and I am grateful to them. I am thankful to the administrative staffs of the Central Forensic Science Laboratory, Chandigarh for their services and for extending help whenever required.

I am thankful to the teaching faculty of Forensic Science Department of Punjabi University, Patiala for their suggestions and support during my Ph.D. work.

I am thankful to Dr. V.K. Goyal, Director, Forensic Science Laboratory, Govt. of NCT of Delhi, New Delhi, for allowing me to continue my research work with the facility at the Forensic Science Laboratory. I extend my gratitude to Sh. Parashuram Singh, Senior Scientific Officer, Forensic Science Laboratory, Govt. of NCT of Delhi, New Delhi, for the help and support provided during this period.
The affection, support and help from Dr. John V. George IPS, Director General, Haryana Police, during my research work at Chandigarh helped me in concentrating on my work leaving behind the homesickness. I owe my deep gratitude to him.

My parents deserve special mention for their inseparable love, care, support and prayers. My Father, Sh. P.V. Raghavan, put the fundament in my learning character, showing me the joy of intellectual pursuit ever since I was a child and my Mother, Late Smt. K.P. Raji, sincerely raised me with her caring and gently loves. I extend my thanks to my sister and her family whose care, love and support helped me in completing this thesis. It is only their inspiration which stood behind all successes in my life. This thesis is dedicated to my parents.

Last but certainly not the least I am thankful to the selfless support and full understanding of my wife whose immense sacrifice helped me in the realization of this thesis.

Finally, I would like to thank everybody who was important to the successful completion of this thesis.
