ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The present investigation was undertaken under the able guidance of Dr. Prabhakar Deo, Head of the Department of Post-Graduate Studies and Research Guide in History, Yeshwant College, Nanded.

I express my deep gratitude to him for his valuable and constant guidance, able supervision. It was his keen interest in my research work that made it possible for me to complete the heavy research work.

I am grateful to Dr. T.V. Pathy, Professor and Head of the Department of History, Marathwada University, Aurangabad for the keen interest.

I am indebted to Principal Shivajirao Patil, who has given me considerable help and the facilities. I am extremely grateful to Professor Bhalchandra Naik, for his constant encouragement.

I am also indebted to Dr. Suryanarayan Ransubhe, Department of Hindi, Dayanand Arts College, Latur, for his valuable suggestions.

I owe special thanks to my colleagues S.M. Ghodke, Dr. A.P. Vithal, G.N. Maggirwar, T.M. Rao, Dr. C.D. Deoulgaonkar, P.S. Kulkarni, Galegaonkar, B.K. Bondge, Vilas Ransubhe, Suresh Nimkar and Atul, V.R. Bajpai, Latur, respectively, for their help.

I also thanks to Shri V.S. Jogdand, Librarian, Purohit, Mane, Bhasme, for their help.

I am thankful to the Director, Department of Archaeology and Museum, Government of Maharashtra, Bombay, for the permission granted to me to study some of the Protected Monuments, in the area.

Place: Latur.
Date: 27/12/1983.

(B.S. DESHMUKH)
Department of History,
Dayanand Arts College, Latur.