ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The endless thanks goes to Lord Almighty for all the blessings he has showered onto me, which has enabled me to write this last note in my research work. During the period of my research, as in the rest of my life, I have been blessed by Almighty with some extraordinary people who have spun a web of support around me. Words can never be enough in expressing how grateful I am to those incredible people in my life who made this thesis possible. I would like an attempt to thank them for making my time during my research in the Institute a period I will treasure.

My deepest appreciation and gratitude is dedicated to my research supervisor, Prof. M. K. Rabinal for providing me continuous support and guidance along the whole way of this research work. I am greatly indebted his heuristic suggestion and inspirational encouragement through this research project and during the writing of this dissertation. This feat was possible only because of the unconditional support provided by him. A person with an amicable and positive disposition, He has always made himself available to clarify my doubts despite his busy schedules and I consider it as a great opportunity to do my doctoral programme under his guidance and to learn from his research expertise. I thank him, for all the help and support.

I express my gratitude to present chariman Prof. U.S. Raikar and all the former chairmans for providing me the required facilities to carry out my research work in the department.

I express my heartfelt thanks to Prof. S. S. Kubakaddi, Prof N. S. Sankeshwar, Prof J. S. Kadadevarmath, Prof J. S. Bhat, Prof S. R. Inamdar, Prof J. R. Tonannavar, Prof N. M. Badiger, Dr. (Smt) J. V. Yenagi, Shri S. Y. Amargolkar for their support and encouragement.
I will be failing in my duty if I don’t acknowledge my teachers who molded my life. I owe a great debt of gratitude to my teachers at D. H. Kawathekar High School Pandharpur, my graduate teachers from K. B. P. Pandharpur college, also my PG teachers late Prof. M K. Soudagar, late Prof. Patil, Prof. C. D. Lokahnde, Prof. Vijya Puri, Prof. Ravi Puri, Prof. P. S. Patil and Prof. C. H. Bhosale from Kolhapur University, Kolhapur.

I express my sincere thanks to Mrs Najamus. Saquib M. Rabinal for her patience, cooperation and moral support.

I particularly want to thank my labmates Dr. Roopa, Dr. M. N. Kalasad, Dr. Ikram, Praveen Anne for their help and cooperation.

A special thanks to current young members of the condensed matter physics group for being around me all these years, where we discussed thin film deposition to solar cell fabrication, which brought me to put my ideas into reality to complete this project. Especially Rajashree’s positive approach towards life and lot of discussion about scientific concepts, synthesis and deposition techniques, Sridhar’s help in all the technical work, Raghu’s help in miniature work, Bindu, Nikhil and Rafiq’s moral support and all the cooperation during my research work and stay at the Karnatak University Dharwad.

Heartfelt thanks to my friends Dr. Smita Mahajan, Dr. Vilas Shinde, Kanchan Kamble, Shama for their constant encouragement, cooperation and help.

My sincere regards & heart-felt thanks to the former principals M. V. Gadad, Smt Kinagi, Dr M. T. Kurani & present principal M. S. Sungar, Dr. L. D. Horakeri, HOD of Physics, and all the staff members of KLE’s S. K. Arts & H. S.K. Science Institute, Hubli, for their kind cooperation.
I gratefully acknowledge the able assistance & co-operation of all research scholars of the Department of Physics, Karnataka University, Dharawad, for their support.

Department of Physics, Pune University is greatly acknowledged for providing SEM & XRD facilities.

I am grateful to KLE Management and UGC for providing me FIP Fellowship to carry out the present work.

I would express my deep sense of gratitude to the affection and support shown to me by my late parents. My parents could not see me reach this stage of my research and I acknowledge them in front of their memory. I take this opportunity to dedicate this work to my late parents Shri N. B. Veerbhadrappa and Smt. V. Nagratnam who have made me what I am, husband Shri H.R. Gundappa, daughters Shabdali and Snehal who have given consistent support throughout my research. My parents have passed onto me a wonderful humanitarian lineage, whose value cannot be measured by any worldly yardstick. The warmest of thanks to my brothers, sister in laws niece. My Daughters who knew only to encourage and never did complain about anything even when they had to suffer a lot in my absence over these years. I owe everything to them, without their everlasting love, this thesis would never be completed.

To you all, I dedicate this work.

Smt. Nerle Umadevi V.
