We ask only for justice and equal rights—the right to vote, the right to our own earnings, equality before the law—Lucy Stone, (1818-1893) orator, abolitionist, and suffragist

Dedicated to my mother whose unflinching support, women’s movement in India whose indomitable struggle and working women whose exemplary courage made this research made this possible!