ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This is an appreciation note to all those who have extended their valuable help and support in the completion of the present thesis.

In the first place, I wish to place on record my sincere and deep sense of gratitude to my teacher and supervisor, Dr. Viney Kapoor, Associate Professor, Department of Laws, Guru Nanak Dev University, Amritsar, for her scholarly guidance from the first stage to last stage of the present study. Without her inspiring association, encouragement and precious advice, the present work would have not been completed successfully. I am also grateful to Professor (Dr.) Rattan Singh, Head, Department of Laws, Guru Nanak Dev University, Amritsar, for his valuable advice and encouragement.

I take this opportunity to record my sincere thanks to Mr. Hans Raj Nauhriyan, District & Sessions Judge (Retired), Mr. Kunwar Vijay Pratap Singh, IPS, DIG, Jalanahdar (Punjab Police), Mr. Anil Kumar Sharma, PPS, 2nd Commandant, IRB, Sangrur (Punjab Police), Mr. Sita Ram Choudhary, Public Prosecutor (Retired), who spared valuable time from their extremely busy schedule to share their honest opinion on the subject of witness protection. Their views have provided me valuable insight into various aspects of the subject.

I express my sincere thanks to the library staff of Bhai Gurdas Library, Guru Nanak Dev University, Library of Department of Law, Guru Nanak Dev University, Amritsar, Punjabi University, Patiala, Delhi University and Indian Law Institute, New Delhi. I equally express my wholehearted thanks to the administrative staff of the Department of Laws, Guru Nanak Dev University, Amritsar.

It is equally pertinent to express my deep sense of gratitude to my parents, husband Mr. Deepak Mohan, my children Tanvi and Harisimran for their affectionate concern and encouragement for my work.
