ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I am extremely grateful to my esteemed teacher Dr. B.S. Dahiya, Professor Emeritus, M.M. University, Mullana who has always been an inspiring patron to me in my academic pursuits. He stimulated my literary sensibility and taught me how to imbibe meaning from a Morrisonian text. His unswerving involvement, along with intellectual acumen of exceptional insight turned my otherwise tedious and challenging work into an uncomplicated one letting me go swift like wind.

I express my regard and gratitude to my husband Mr. Paramjit Singh Chahal for his cooperation and promptness during the whole process of my research. My father-in-law and mother-in-law deserve special thanks for their encouragement and for sparing me from odd jobs. My parents also owe my gratefulness for their consistent inspiration in helping me carry on the task of effecting the thesis. My children Adhiraj and Ahana, who induced strength and zeal in me by indirectly challenging my resilience by persistently pestering me with their juvenile nuisance, deserve my appreciation.

I am also thankful to the library staff of M.M. University, Mullana and American Center, New Delhi for their cooperation and readiness in providing essential material.
