ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I feel highly indebted to my guide Dr. R. Manavalaramanujam, Professor and Head, Department of Zoology, Bharathiar University, Coimbatore, who ushered the labyrinth of my research work, shedding his light of erudition, scholarship and intuition at every stage. The religious sense of commitment with which he supervised every facet of the thesis, the intellectual freedom that he accorded, his scholarly advice and unfailing encouragement, which he rendered are indeed monumental and worth recording.

I owe my sincere thanks to Dr. G. Vanithakumari, Professor, Dr. K. Sasikala, Reader, Dr. K. Murugan, Senior Lecturer and Dr. M. Muthusamy and C. Gunasekaran, Technicians, Department of Zoology, Bharathiar University, Coimbatore for their substantial helps.

I stand indebted to my seniors Dr. M. Ramesh, Research Associate, Unit of Pollution Biology, Department of Zoology, Bharathiar University, Coimbatore, Dr. K. Sivakumari, Lecturer, Department of Zoology, Bharathy Women’s College, Chennai, Dr. Rani Planisamy, Scientist, ICAR, Coimbatore, Dr. S. Logaswamy, Lecturer, Department of Zoology, Kongunadu Arts and Science College, Coimbatore who made me to accentuate in the field of research. With great adept, encouragement and wonderful good humour they served as merciless reviewers of each and every word of this manuscript and their boundless help throughout the course of study is always rememberable.

I would like to thank my juniors Miss. N. Geetha, B. Revathy, V. Maruthappan, Anand Prem Rajan and R. Rama of Pollution Biology Unit, Department of Zoology, Bharathiar University, Coimbatore.
I am grateful to the Librarians of Bharathiar University, Tamil Nadu Agricultural University, Central Marine Fisheries Research Institute, Kochi and CAS in Marine Biology, Annamalai University, Porto Novo for their help in literature collection without which this work would not have been completed.

I place my gratefulness on records for the financial assistance rendered by Bharathiar University, Coimbatore and University Grant Commission, New Delhi for financial assistance in the form of fellowships during the course of the study.

Thanks are due to Mr. S. C. Krishnamoorthy, for his perfect technical service towards the neat execution of this piece of work.

The inspiring encouragement, moral support and co-operation given during this course of study by my family members and relatives are unforgettable, forever.

I thank all the unknown hands that helped me in shaping this thesis.
