ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This dissertation would not have been possible without the guidance of my supervisor Dr. TANU GUPTA, Head of the Department of Humanities and Social Sciences MMU, Mullana (Ambala). I am heartily thankful to my supervisor whose encouragement, guidance and support from the initial to the final level enabled me to develop an understanding of the subject. Lastly, I offer my regards and blessings to all of those who supported me in any respect during the completion of the dissertation.

This dissertation would not be accomplished without the generous contributions of any individuals and organizations. I am very much grateful to them for their unlimited help and support. Above all, I express our gratitude to God, the almighty, who aided me with his strength, gave me wisdom and patience to complete this dissertation.

Furthermore, I want to show my appreciation to the executives, to the librarians of Himachal Pradesh University, Shimla Library and the State Liberary of Ambala and to the lab-technicians of the computer labs of Maharishi Markandeshwar University Mullana, Ambala, for their unlimited patience during the time of research writing. Moreover, I am also thankful to my classmates, group members, and friends for their helps and supports. At last, I thank to my husband, my daughter and other family members for their help, supports and sacrifices during this period.
