

VITAE

Savitri M. was born in Kamaraj district in the year 1976. She completed her under graduation in English in the year 1997 and completed her post graduation in Language and Literature in 1999, from Ethiraj College for Women, Chennai. She completed her Master of Philosophy in English Literature in 2004 at Madurai Kamaraj University, Madurai. She completed bachelor's degree in Education from Lady Wellington Institute of Advanced Studies in Education in 2000. She registered for her Ph.D in the Department of English, Anna University, Chennai in 2005.

She has a teaching experience of more than ten years. At present she is teaching English to the first and the third year engineering students at Valliammai Engineering College, Chennai.

She is interested in the area of Second Language Acquisition. She plans to continue her research on strategy training at the tertiary level particularly to those students from mother-tongue medium schools.