PREFACE

At the outset, I bow my head in gratitude to Lord Almighty for the blessings and guidance, He has showered upon me in the successful completion of this research project.

I endow my grateful thanks and gratitude to the Management, Cauvery College of Women, Tiruchirappalli – 18, which permitted me to undertake the Doctoral study.

My special thanks to our beloved Madam Dr. Mrs. V. Sujatha, Principal, Cauvery College for Women, Tiruchirappalli – 18, who have been the source of tremendous support to me.

I am immensely thankful to Mrs. S. Sankari, Vice Principal, and Head, Department of Social Work, Cauvery College for Women, Tiruchirappalli – 18, to my colleagues and student friends for extending their moral support in this arduous endeavour.

I owe my sincere thanks to my Research Advisor Dr. A. Umesh Samuel Jebaseelan, M.A. (Eng.), M.A. (SW), Ph.D., Reader in Social Work, Bishop Heber College, Tiruchirappalli – 17, for his valuable guidance and professional advice. I find no words to thank him for the commitment to task, constant attention, meticulous guidance, constructive criticism and scholarly remarks on the work at all the stages to make this dissertation a success.

I am pleased to thank Rev. Relton M. James, M.A., M.Ed., Principal, St. John’s Vestry Anglo Indian Higher Secondary School, Tiruchirappalli, I also thank Mrs.G.Parameswari, M.A., M.Phil., M.Ed., Principal, Seva Sangham Girls Higher Secondary School and Janab. M.I. Mohammed Ali, M.A., M.Ed., M.Phil., Principal of Khajamian Boys Higher Secondary School, for their kind permission to undertake the study in their school and the facilities they provided for the completion of the study. I place on record my heartfelt thanks to the faculty of the school who helped me in the process of data collection. The memories of my data collection will never perish. I thank the respondents namely the students of IX, X, XI and XII standard in the three school, who extended their co-operation and made my work easy.

I am very much thankful to Mr. S. Alwin Reginald, Messers M.S.Infotech, Tiruchirappalli for his kind co-operation and excellent typographical assistance.

My special thanks are due in a very large measure Dr.S.Sankaranarayanan and Mrs. Vedavalli Sankaranarayanan for their encouragement and support.

I acknowledge my beloved in-laws, Mr. B. Mahendran and Mrs. Meera Mahendran for their continuous support in all my effort, in spite of my father-in-laws serious illness.

I express my heartfelt thanks to my beloved parents Mr. D. John Oliver, Mrs.Vetha Oliver and my sister Mrs. J. Zipporah Joshua at Canada and my two brothers Mr. J. Carol Daniel Jokmels and Mr. J. Abraham Daniel Pannir at California for their constant encouragement and moral support in successful completion of this research work.

A very special word of appreciation to my beloved husband Mr.M.Anand for his love, concern, persistent encouragement in completing the work and I am also very much pleased with my two daughters A. Venisha and A. Tabitha for withstanding my physical absence during the completion of my research work.
