Acknowledgements are not the full expression of one’s gratitude towards the persons whose help is acknowledged. Language is an adequate medium to express one’s sentiments, but it is the only medium through which one can record one’s gratefulness and indebtedness to one’s guide and benefactors.

My deepest gratitude is to my worthy supervisor, Dr. K.C. Gupta, (Retd. Professor), Deptt. Of Commerce, M.D.U. PG Regional Centre, Rewari. I have been amazingly fortunate to have a mentor who gave me the freedom to explore on my own and at the same time the guidance to recover when my steps faltered. He taught me how to question thoughts and express ideas. His patience and support helped me overcome many crisis situations and finish this dissertation.

Dr. Narender Garg (Professor and Head, Department of Commerce, M.D.U. Rohtak) has been always there to listen and give advice. I am deeply grateful to him for the kind discussions that helped me sort out the technical details of my work.

Dr. Ravinder Vinayak’s (Professor, Department of Commerce, M.D.U. Rohtak) insightful comments and constructive criticisms at different stages of my research were thought-provoking and they helped me focus my ideas. I am grateful to Prof. Dalip Singh, Deptt. Of Management, M.D.University, Rohtak for holding me to a high research standard and enforcing strict validations for each research result, and thus teaching me how to do research. Thanks are also due to all faculty members for their advice and motivation for pursuing this research work. I specially extend my thanks and gratitude to Dr. Sanjay Tiwari, Assistant Professor (DDE), G.J.U., Hisar, Dr. Hemant Sharma, Associate Professor, Deptt. of Management Rishi Markanda University, Mullana, and Sh. Let me put on records the most affectionate support and understanding from my husband Ravi who had sustained me throughout with his most cherished help and co-operation. I will be failing in my expression if I do not put few words of thanks for my lovely son 'Saksham' who had to sacrifice a large numbers of affectionate moments due to my involvement in this work.

I also wish to extend my thanks to all people for whom the work has been a labour of love.

Above all, I must record my deepest gratitude to the 'Almighty' who blessed me with the opportunity to accomplish this task.
