ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

First of all, my head down to 'Almighty' who has blessed me with astonishing opportunity, skill and potential.

This long cherished dream of mine wouldn’t have seen this day of light without the enormous cooperation and colossal support of so many awe-inspiring people whom I will remain forever indebted. From the shallowest core of my heart, I express my sincere gratitude to all of them.

At this moment, I find myself short of words to express my sincere thanks to my esteemed supervisor Prof. Ashok K. Kalia who has been major propellant right from the beginning of the germination of seeds of this thesis till its final reaping. Prof. Kalia always provided me his constructive and ever available guidance, incessant inspiration and valuable suggestions at all the levels of this research work. I am reminded of Jonathan Swift’s feelings about a pedagogue – “He has the vision which is the art of seeing things which are invisible”. I find myself highly privileged to have worked under his supervision on such an innovative and highly relevant topic in Education.

I would like to offer my deepest gratitude and acknowledgment to Prof. (Mrs.) Indira Dhull, Dean and Head, Department of Education, MDU, Rohtak for her support throughout the period of my investigation.

I owe my special gratitude to Prof. D. N. Sansanwal, Director, Institute of Education, Devi Ahilya Vishwavidyalaya, Indore for his encouragement, constructive criticism, excellent advice and insightful support. I am lucky to have an opportunity to discuss with him on matters related to the research and exchanged views.

I would like to express thanks to Prof. N. R. Sharma, Prof. Radhey Shyam and Prof. Rajbir Hooda, Department of Psychology, MDU, Rohtak, Dr. Kamlesh Singh, Assistant Professor, Department of Humanities and Social Sciences, IIT, Delhi for their guidance. Interaction with them turned out to be very fruitful and valuable.

I am extremely grateful to Dr. Mohammad Imran Khan, Scientist ‘C’, DIPR, DRDO, Delhi for providing me his resourceful direction, steadfast support, excellent review and invaluable guidance to carry out the present research.
I am highly thankful to Dr. Madhu Sahni, Assistant Professor, Vaish College of Education, Rohtak who was very helpful at various stages of my research work.

I express my gratitude to the Principals, Teachers and Students of all the sampled schools for co-operation and providing me an opportunity to collect the sample for the study.

I am extremely grateful to Ms. Anita Dalai, Teacher, Govt. Primary School, Rohini; Ms. Rajol Tiwari, Teacher, CRPF School, Rohini; Mr. Suresh Kumar Bhadrwaj, Inspector, NDMC, New Delhi; Mr. Narender Hooda, Director, Lok Sabha, New Delhi and my student Yudhvir for providing me a supportive environment for data collection. I am also highly thankful to all those authors, researchers whose material I have consulted and quoted, a debt which cannot be articulated on account of this sheer humility.

I am extremely grateful to all my friends for their affection, constant inspiration, patience, understanding and eager support that sustained my confidence in life.

I can never forget to mention the contribution of my caring maa Mrs. Indra Kumari, my loving niece Lovey and my wonderful sister Ms. Sunita. Their lives and love are etched in my past, present and future. My younger brothers Vinod, Parmod and my sister-in-law Kavita have always inspired me in all constructive means. My elder sister Ms. Savita, nephew Pradeep and my beautiful niece Meenakshi have always directed me in critical evaluation. They have always been with me. Undoubtedly, they are ever smiling down on my accomplishments. My very special nephew Punit and Parikshit, niece Yashvi are incisively an active source of energy and inspiration in my life.

Above all, once again, I raise my heart, expressing my deepest sense of gratitude to my creator who gave me enormous and undeserved opportunities in life........

........Him that is able to do exceedingly abundantly above all that we ask or think, unto him be glory throughout all ages, forever and ever.

Anita
