ACKNOWLEDGMENT

At the very outset I would like to offer my gratitude to lord Krishna for enabling me to enter the precious world of higher education. I would then like to offer my sincere gratitude to my supervisor Dr. Asha Kuthari Chaudhuri, Associate Professor, Department of English, Gauhati University. I am indebted to her for enabling me to reach this golden dream of my life. Her valuable ideas regarding performance theory, drama, films and other relevant issues have showed me the right path to gather knowledge of the theoretical and textual inputs and thereby formulate my thesis. Her valuable presence in my life has provided me mental strength to complete my work against all odds of life. Due to the sudden demise of my parents, I had a traumatic experience and lost the mental strength to do anything in my life. But she lifted me up from this state of despair, enabled me to resume my research work and thereby materialize the dream of my deceased parents. Like my parents, my guide A.K.C Ma’am (as we call her) has always thought about my welfare. I would like to thank her once again for enabling me to complete my thesis.

I would like to offer my gratitude to my parents – Lt. Indira Sharma (maa) and Lt. Nagen Sharma (papa), who have left for their eternal abode. After the completion of my master’s degree, they inspired me to make an entry into the world of research. Although they are physically absent, I believe that they are blessing me from some unseen world. I would like to thank my husband, my brother and my dear little son Aaraydha Kashyap whose valuable presence in my life have encouraged me to work hard. I would not have finished my work without the help and co-operation of my husband Prem. I would like to offer my gratitude to my maternal uncle (mama) Sri Nagen Sarma who has proved to be a constant help during the entire period of my research work. I would also like to thank my brother Manash Porashor and cousin brother Pranjal Parasar for their valuable help.
I would like to thank my teachers of the Department of English, Gauhati University those precious guidance and help have enabled me to traverse the tough path of research work. Their ideas have always helped me in comprehending a text or a theoretical perspective.

Therefore I would like to thank Prof. Ranjit Dev Goswami, Bibhash Chaudhuri, Aparna Bhattacharjee, Pradipta Borgohain, Sanjiv Kumar Nath and Nandana Dutta. Bibhash Chaudhuri Sir has helped me a lot during my research work.

I would also like to thank the non-teaching staff of the Department of English. Jinna Da, Naseur, Dipjyoti Da, Foni Da, Mridul Da and Lakhi Da for their help and co-operation. Whenever I faced any problem regarding official matters or any other problem related to my research work, they were always there.

I would like to thank my friends Namrata Pathak, Saurabhi Sharma, Jnanendra Barman, Sayarani Kalita, Mamoni kalita, Bharti Chakravarty, Bhaskar Deka and Debojit Bharali for their valuable help. Jnanendra Barman has helped me a lot during my fieldwork, pre-submission seminar and such other activities related to my research work. I am indebted to him. I am also grateful to my seniors in the department – Arunima Ba, Anindita Ba, Pranjal Da, Nipon Da and other for their encouragement and help.

I would like to thank ICHR (Indian Council of Historical Research) for providing me a fellowship that has enabled me to smoothly handle the financial needs of my research work. I would also like to thank Manik Sharma Sir (Retired Vice-Principal of Sarupathar College), Prof.G.Ram (Dept. of Sociology, Assam University, Silchar) and Mr. J.C Dutta (Registrar, Gauhati University) for their valuable help.

Last but not least I would also like to thank the group of eunuchs – Rosy, Haldhibai, Dimple and others who live lives that are integral to the focus of my study.
