ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I would like to take this opportunity to express my profound gratitude to all the people who have helped me along the way in completion of this thesis. Their kind cooperation and inspiration will always be remembered.

I am deeply grateful to my esteemed teacher and guide respected Prof. (Dr.) Gayatree Goswamee, Head, Department of Education, Gauhati University, who guided me in each and every step of the way. Her inspiration, valuable suggestions and constant support was a great source of encouragement for me. Without her active support and encouragement, it would not have been possible for me to carry out and complete this thesis.

I would like to offer my gratitude to all the respected teachers of the Department of Education of Gauhati University for their kind cooperation and also for their valuable suggestions during the course of this study.

I would like to take this opportunity to offer my gratitude to my father, Sri Dilip Bordhan and my mother, Smt. Bijali Bordhan whose constant support, encouragement and blessings has always been a source of inspiration to me in doing my research work.

I want to express my thanks to the library staff at K. K. Handique Library, Gauhati University, Guwahati, National Council for Educational Research and Training, New Delhi, National University of Educational Planning and Administration, New Delhi, Indian Council of Social Science Research, New Delhi, Indira Gandhi National Open University, New Delhi, National Institute for Public Cooperation and Child Development, New Delhi and National Institute for Public Cooperation and Child Development, Guwahati for their help in providing me with the necessary materials.

My humble gratitude also go to the Heads and other officials of various NGOs and officials of Government Organizations and social workers associated with child labourers, when I met them for their help and kind cooperation.

I would never have been able to complete this study without the love and support of my family.

I want to acknowledge my wife Mrs. Madhuchanda Bordhan for her cooperation and silent support throughout the period of my research.

I am thankful to my uncle Sri Anath Bordhan, my elder brother, my younger brother Sri Sumit Bordhan, my aunt and my two cousins for their support and cooperation at every step of my research work.
