ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

At the outset I submit my grateful prayers to Goddess Durgah for having endowed me with physical fitness, knowledge and patience throughout the period of my research.

My long cherished ambition of doing Ph.D., has come to reality owing to the ardent support and unflinching co-operation lent to me by a host of personalities.

First and foremost, I express my deep sense of gratitude and indebtedness to my guide Dr. R. Jayaraman, Reader-in-Economics, Sri Pushpam College, Poondi, for his valuable, endearing, inspiring and sustained guidance throughout the study. His stupendous efforts in helping me, as well as his impeccable knowledge, constructive criticism and tireless help evinced during the entire period of the study is immensely appreciated and thankfully acknowledged.

I will be failing in my duty, if I do not thank Dr. K. Nagarajan for having suggested the problem and acted as a source of encouragement till the submission of my synopsis.

I will be equally failing in my duty, if I do not thank Dr. A. N. Rajamani former Head of the Department of Economics National College, Trichy for having recommended me to Dr. Jayaraman of Sri. Pushpam College, Poondi.
Words are inadequate to express my sense of gratitude to Dr. Varadarajan, Professor and Head of the Department of Economics, Agricultural University, Madurai for his uniform sympathy, hospitality and valuable suggestions.

I also thank Dr. Victor Louis, Dr. Mariaraj and Prof. Arul Jeganatharaj of the St. Joseph's College, Tiruchy for their valuable suggestions.

I thank the Principal and Librarian, St. Joseph's College, Tiruchirapalli for having permitted me to have a run on the library for secondary data.

I thank the Principal and Head of the Department of Economics of Sri. Pushpam College (Autonomous) Poondi for having kindly permitted me to pursue my Research.

I record my sense of gratitude to the Secretary, Handloom Weavers' Association, Karur and other Textile entrepreneurs who had all along been helpful to me in the collection of data.
