ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I take this opportunity to express my profound gratitude and deep regards to my guide Professor Srinibas Pathi for his exemplary guidance, monitoring and constant encouragement throughout the course of this thesis. I have been extremely lucky to have a supervisor who cared so much about my work, and who responded to my questions and queries so promptly. The blessings, help and guidance given by him time to time shall carry me a long way in the journey of life on which I am about to embark.

I also take this opportunity to express a deep sense of gratitude to the Head of Department, Department of Public Administration, MZU, Professor Lalrintluanga and other faculty members for their cordial support, valuable information and guidance, which helped me in computing this task through various stages.

I am particularly grateful to the Principal, Mr. T Thangthuama and my colleagues at Government Lawngtlai College, Lawngtlai, Mizoram, for their constant help and support throughout the research.

I am obliged to staff members of Department of Public Administration, MZU for the valuable information provided by them in their respective field. I am grateful for their cooperation during the period of my research.

I would like my very great appreciation to Dr. Lalnilawma, Department of Rural Development, MZU, Dr. Jangkhongam Doungel Asso. Professor, Department of Political Science, MZU, Mr. KT Pakhuangte, Principal, Extension training Centre, Pukpui and Mr John C Lallawmawma, Asst Professor, Government Kamalanagar College, Chawngte for their valuable and constructive suggestions during the planning and development of the research work. Their willingness to give their time so generously has been very much appreciated.

I would also like to express my appreciation to all those who generously offered help and suggestions to improve the quality of my research. I am grateful to the staff of the Directorate of Rural Development, Mizoram and DRDA, Aizawl for the valuable information and necessary data. I specially thank Mr.
Lalhmingthanga, Director, State Level Monitoring Cell for providing me necessary information and sharing his experience about rural development in Mizoram.

I must express my gratitude to my wife, Dr. C Lalnunsangi and my two sons, Daniel and Lalmalsawma, my parents, brothers, sister and friends for their for continued support and encouragement.

Lastly, I thank the Almighty for the countless blessings without which this assignment would not be possible.
