ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I bow my head to the God Almighty who bestowed upon me his blessings in abundance to climb heights in education and empowered me to achieve my goals.

The research for Ph.D. demands constant supervision and guidance at each step. I am the most fortunate to have the opportunity of having Hon’ble Prof. Maneet K. Mahajan, Director, University College of Business Studies and Professor, Department of Commerce, H.P, University, Shimla, as my esteemed guide. In spite of his heavy academic schedules, he spared his most precious time whenever I approached him. His vast knowledge, deep insight, well reasoned concepts, meticulous and scholarly guidance enlightened my path like a light house. He injected in me a sense of self-confidence which is the foundation of a sound research. His keen interest, and constant encouragement accelerated my pace towards the attainment of the goal. I owe him a sincerest debt of gratitude which can never be repaid in any form.

I must also express my thanks to Mrs. Prem Mahajan, who has been a continuous source of inspiration and showered her parental affection in abundance and delighted me with her hospitality whenever I visited her sweet home for guidance from Dr. Mahajan.

Regards and thanks to Prof. A.D.N. Vajpai, Vice-Chancellor, HPU and Dr. O. P. Verma, Chairman, Deptt. of Commerce, HPU for providing me needed assistance during the course of the study.

I am highly grateful to Dr. Sunil Gupta (Ex-V.C, HPU), Dr. V. K Sharma and Dr. S.S. Narta, Ex-Chairman, Deptt. of Commerce, HPU for permitting me to register for Ph.D.

I must not miss the opportunity to thank Prof. S.S. Chauhan, HPU for his unconditional support.

I am deeply indebted to Prof. Vaidya, Ex-D.U.I., Panjab University, Chandigarh, for his constructive criticism, sustained support, valuable suggestions and provision of required facilities.
I feel privileged to be associated with Prof R.K. Sharma, Ex-Dean Faculty of Arts, Fellow, Panjab University, whose role in plantation and nurturing of Ph.D. research work is unforgettable. His superb supervision, academic excellence and immense knowledge in research helped me in this endeavour. His expert inputs, personal helps and friendly nature has always made me feel at ease with him and I could always look back on him for any support during my course of Ph.D. His attitude of living every moment as it comes, making serendipitous observation and converting them to new possibilities, correlating ideas and understanding the obvious has helped me come a long way and will always guide me in future. He made me realized what I had only heard, “When the going gets tough, the tough get going”. I will never find words to tell what I owe to him, and if I start doing it, I would not know where to stop....thanks for everything Sir....to me, professionally, you are “perfection personified”.

I must also pen down my sincere regards and heart-felt thanks to Mrs. Neelam Sharma, for boosting my morale and motherly support to bring this investigation to a fruitful conclusion.

My thanks to Mr. R.C Goel who helped me in statistics and I can see the good shape of my thesis because of Mr. Dinesh, who helped by formatting the entire thesis.

I am highly thankful to the librarians, H. P University and Panjab University, State Library, for making the required material available.

I owe my special thanks to Bank Managers of SBI, PNB, HDFC, ICICI, who assisted me for providing valuable information required in the initiation and completion of this venture.

I shall be failing in my duty if do not thank the subjects of my study for their cooperation and willing participation in the investigation.

I would express my deep sense of gratitude to the affection, support and blessings showered by my parents-in-law, Sh. Jagan Nath Verma and Smt. Daya Verma as well as my brothers-in-law and sisters-in-law.

Finally, I would like to acknowledge the people who mean world to me, my respected parents, my loving husband, my sweet sister and my darling daughter. I cannot imagine a life without their love & blessings.
I always fall short of words and felt impossible to describe my mumma papa’s unconditional love & support in words. If I have to mention one thing about them, among many, then I would proudly mention that my parents are intellectuals who expertise in their respective fields and always wanted to see me to achieve the apex of education and I am climbing the apex because of their guidance, support and blessings. I thank my father, Dr. Chander Mohan Ghai, who always stood beside me in my ups and downs and has constantly forced me to remain focused on achieving my goal. My mother, Dr. Sandhya Ghai (Principal, N.I.N.E, PGIMER, Chandigarh) always came to my rescue with her intelligent ideas, thought provoking discussions and comprehensive understanding. They have been a constant source of inspiration and this work is especially dedicated to them.

I consider myself the luckiest in the world to have my hubby, Sunny in my life, who loves me infinitely and supported me in each and every way. I extend the warmest of thanks to my husband, for showing faith in me and giving me liberty to choose what I desired, for understanding and showing patience while I was far away from home during the period of my research. He provided moral support & motivation which drove to give my best. My heartfelt thanks to him, for always being with me in thicks & thins of life.

I owe my thanks to my sister Akanksha and her husband Abhishek, for cheering me up whenever I felt low. Their various forms of assistance are greatly appreciated.

Dictionaries have failed to provide words sufficient to express my immense indebtedness to my two year daughter HASSRAT for her forbearance, who silently adjusted herself and innocently motivated and spared me to complete this endeavour. She wiped my tears and hugged me whenever I lost confidence in me, giving me enough strength to start afresh towards my goal.

At the end, I would like to thank all those people who made this thesis possible and an unforgettable experience for me.
