ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I have completed this research work under the able guidance of our beloved teacher Dr. (Mrs.) Sudha V. Kalkate, Professor and Head of the Department of Sociology, Marathwada University, Aurangabad-431004, India. Her guidance and sympathetic consideration of the difficulties coming in the way of my research have encouraged me to complete this task.

I owe my sense of gratefulness to Mr. Sithorn Nikortha and Mr. Surapong Wankeo, the Cooperative League of Thailand, Thailand, Prof. M.P. Jilthe, of Milind College of Arts, Aurangabad, who were helpful to me from the beginning of my research work. The discussions I had with them helped me in sharpening my ideas.

I express my gratitude to the Librarian and staff of the Marathwada University, Aurangabad; the Librarian and the staff of Cooperatives Promotion Department, Thailand, the Librarian of the Cooperative League of Thailand, Thailand, and various Thai officers, who were courteous to me in extending all the facilities readily.
I am thankful to all the managers, staff and members of Thrift and Credit Cooperatives, Thailand, who have helped me by responding to the questionnaire. Without their sincere cooperation this research work would not have been completed.

I am also very much thankful to Phra Thepwarawetthee the Abbot Wat Raiking, Thailand, for the scholarship given to me for completing my research work.

I also take this opportunity to express my sincere thanks towards Mrs. Kunda B. Patodekar and the family and Mrs. Vidiya V. Athalye of the University Department of Sociology. I also thank Miss Wipuch Sobhavong, Assistant Professor, Sri Nakharinwirot University, Thailand, my aunt Miss Ubol Neawuthum, my mother Mrs. Fatoom Sobhavong, Major Sunchai Wongwisests, Miss Rapeepun Poopluen and the family for their encouragement. My thanks are also due to the staff members of the Department of Thai Language, Department of Cooperative and the lecturers of Nakornpathom Teacher's College, Thailand, for the efforts they have taken in completing my research work. My special thanks are due to Shri C.S. Bhandwale for neat and timely typing of the thesis and for preparing the graphs and maps for the thesis.
Last but not the least, my heart-felt thanks are for my father late Mr. Sawing Sopavong, who encouraged me in my research work till his last breath.
