ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I am grateful to numerous peers who have contributed towards shaping of my research work in the form of thesis.

At the outset, I would like to express my deep sense of gratitude to Dr. Nimesh D. Oza for his advise during my doctoral research endeavor for the past three and half years. As my supervisor, he has constantly forced me to remain focused on achieving my goal. His observations and comments helped me to establish the overall direction of the research and to move forward with construction of a thesaurus. I hearty thank him for providing me the opportunity to work under his guidance.

The main intellectual stimulus to carry out research work on this subject was provided by my Ex. Boss Dr. G. K. Manjunath, Chief Librarian, IGIDR, Mumbai. It was my fortune that I worked under the guidance of a boss who is committed, dedicated and loyal to his duties and expert in a subject area. He has played a significant role in improving the quality of research work with his valuable suggestions, guidance and comments. He has been source of inspiration and confidence, words cannot express how grateful I am to Dr. G. K. Manjunath who has done everything for me right from beginning of my association with him at IGIDR. Sir, thank you very much for all your help.

I profoundly acknowledge Dr. A K Dasgupta’s contribution and suggestions for constructing this thesaurus. I am very much grateful to Dr. Jagdish Arora, Director, INFLIBNET Centre for allowing me to carry out my research and his active guidance provided during the entire research work.

Last, but not least, a special thanks to my family members my parents, my wife Shilpa, kids Dewansh and Vishwam, for their love, patience, and understanding, they allowed me to spend most of the time on my research work. For the past six months, my parents, wife and kids kept on reminding me: ‘You should come home only after spending at least two hours on your research work’!

I thank all family members from the bottom of my heart for their understanding and encouragement for this massive prolific work.
