Even the most beauteous calligraphy cannot sufficiently express my gratitude to those who with such good grace became a tower of strength for me in the completion of the present work.

The present work obviously reflects the influence of Dr. D.N. Mishra, M.D., Reader in Medicine, under whose distinguished and erudite guidance the present work was carried out. His constant and meticulous supervision of every minute detail, constructive and valuable criticism and efficient and unfainting beneficence throughout this study have made this travail delightful and possible for me.

I am deeply indebted to Dr. G.D. Shukla, M.D., Lecturer in Psychiatry for his unique blend of expertise and patience during the supervision of the work and for rendering generous and unstinting support in the accomplishment of this arduous deal.

I am truly grateful to Prof. H.N. Saxena, M.D., D.M.R.E., Professor and Head of Radiology department who endowed this work with his treasure of wide experience in supervising the extremely important radiological studies of the patients and for his blissful encouragement and tireless support to me.
I am sincerely thankful to Dr. R.C. Arora, M.D., Reader and Head of the department of Medicine for his kind acquiescence to perform this work in the department of Medicine.

I am highly obliged to Dr. B.L. Verma, Ph.D. (Statistics), Statistician-cum-Lecturer in S.P.M. who carefully guided and supervised the statistical part of the study.

My sincere thanks are due to my friend Dr. Niraj Garg who has helped me tremendously in the accomplishment of this work. The help rendered by Dr. A.K. Sachdeva, Dr. H.S. Bhasin, Dr. S.K. Agarwal, Dr. G.P. Chaudhary, Dr. R.K. Gupta and Dr. M. Saxena is highly commendable. I also appreciate and thank all my well-wishers for keeping my spirits high at every step.

I dedicate this work to the memory of my late father, Shri H.C. Agarwal and to the love and understanding shared by my mother and other family members, which was the source of inspiration and solace to me in the execution of this cumbersome task.

I am also thankful to Mr. Siddiqui Ali who has assiduously typed these pages.

Lastly, I am deeply obliged to the subjects of this study whose co-operation was but essential for the success of this work.
