ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The dearth of research oriented writing on the involvement of women directly or indirectly in the insurgent movement of Assam and counterinsurgency has been felt for a long time. Barring a few number of books and articles, the short of this types of books has been felt. When I went to Dr. Alaka Sarma Madam for starting research work she suggested three issues. Women in Armed conflict situation were among these three. And I choose this one.

I particularly emphasized on two districts- Nalbari and Kamrup. As ULFA was taken as the main insurgent organisation, their influence was very much there in these two districts. I choose four blocks each from both the districts.

I was very much helped by the Secretary of Nalbari unit of MASS Kutubuddin Ahmed, MASS worker Latika Das, Bubumoni Goswami, Lachit Bordoloi, Pallab jyoti Bhattacharya, ADGP, SB, Assam Police, Ex leader of Asom Jatiyatabadi Yuba Chatra Parishad Ananta Kalita, former ULFA cadre Rupjyoti Bodo, and Lawyer Gobinda Kalita.

Here I extend my sincere thank to Sewabrat Das who helped me a lot at the time of going to the remote areas for field work.

Moreover I can never forget the help and assistance of Bhaskar Jyoti Mahanta, ADGP, RPF, Assam Police and Harish Rajbangsi of AASHWAS, Mayuri Chetia, Nodal Officer of Rajiv Gandhi Memorial Scheme for Rehabilitation of Victims of Violence, Abhijit Sharma of Assam Public Works, Ruparani Bhuyan of United Protective Forum, Indraneel Kalita, Secretary of Forum for Terrorist Victims Family, Meena Devi, Khiroma Saikia of Kasturba Gandhi National Memorial Trust, Assam Branch, Anurita Hazarika, Sheetal Sarmah of North East Network and Khiroda Buzarbaruah, Ex President of Nalbari Mahila Samiti.

Nirupama Talukdar, Joint Director of Department of Economics and Statistics, Assam helped a lot at the time of collection of data from the blocks. I offer my sincere thanks to her for her valuable cooperation. At the same time, I cannot forget the help of Police officers of various Police Stations at the time of collection of data which made my task easier. I offer my sincere gratitude to the people of different blocks who offered their helping hand whenever I came to them. Obliviously there was a little bit of hesitation from their side in the beginning. But as soon as they came to know my purpose they gladly cooperated with me. I will never forget their hospitality.

The acknowledgement list will remain incomplete if I do not mention the names of the different library. Worth mentioning is ICHR, NEN, NESC, PANOS, OKDISCD, NIPCCD, KKH Library, Gauhati University, Women Study Centre, Gauhati University, the library of MASS, IIT (G) Library, National Library of Calcutta etc. Here I have to thank Akshay Jyoti Sarma and Gajendraballav Dev Choudhury for providing a number of books, and study materials particularly from JNU library, New Delhi. Special thanks and gratitude go to Dr. Sandhya Goswami Madam of our department for her continuous encouragement. Her encouragement was a moral booster for me. She showed me various writings related to my thesis and provided me relevant writings whenever I met her. Along with this I offer my sincere thanks to other faculty members of the Department of Political Science, Gauhati University for their valuable suggestions and guidance.

I thank my every family member for their kind cooperation. I offer my special thank to my husband Manash Pratim Baruah, Associate Professor, D. K. College, Mirza, who encouraged and provided me the genuine supports and ideas, who directly or indirectly helped in the course of my thesis writing. Particularly my two children Akul & Jiya always took care of my work. They were very much cautious that I was not disturbed while I was working. They encouraged me a lot when I get depressed of some time. I have to mention specially the name of my helping hand Biswashi who helped indirectly by taking the entire burden of my household activities.

Inspiration always plays a vital role in every progress in human life. I am greatly indebted to my respected guide Alaka Sarmah Madam whose inspirational suggestions and guidance helped me in the completion of this thesis.

However any kinds of mistakes on this piece of writing will be entirely mine.
