ACKNOWLEDGMENT

The accomplishment of this research work could be made possible through the invaluable advice and guidance of my supervisor who guided me constantly throughout the entire work. Words are not sufficient to express my deep sense of gratitude to him. His keen interest in my work was enough to sustain my work. My gratitude also goes to all the staff in the Department of Geography, N.U. for providing necessary support and services. I am also thankful to professors, administrators, scholars and well-wishers in the University for their Goodwill Gesture.

I gratefully acknowledge staff of the departments such as Library, N.U.; Library, Department of Geography, Kohima Science College, Jotsoma; Department of Economics and Statistics, Kohima; Department of Soil and Water Conservation, Kohima; Land Resources, Kohima; Department of Agriculture, Kohima; Department of Census of Nagaland, Kohima, Department of R.D, Kohima; DC’s Office Phek, etc. for help and services rendered in providing the study materials.

I also convey my indebtedness to all my friends who had helped me in preparing my maps and diagrams. I am so thankful to my wife and other family members for being patiently praying for the success this work and encouragements throughout. I regret for failing to acknowledge all who contributed for the accomplishment of this thesis. I bow my head in obeisance to you all.
