ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

With deep sense of gratitude I acknowledge the valuable help and encouragement I received from Dr. S. Kanakaraj, Senior Professor and Head, Department of English, DDE, Madurai Kamaraj University in the preparation of this thesis. He guided me properly, at every step, in the laborious task of collecting, arranging and shaping the materials which have gone into this work on Chinua Achebe.

I remember my ‘Guru’ who always wanted me to update my knowledge on the various genres in English Literature. He is none other than Late. Prof. G.J. Williams, Former Head of the P.G. Department of English, V.H.N.S.N. College, Virudhunagar. He was my guiding lamp when I did my Post Graduation in English Literature and American Literature. I always remember him with utmost sincerity and loyalty and feel proud to be his former student.

My thanks are due to my beloved parents Late Mr. V. Victor Mathews and Mrs. M. Manonmani for having given a life to me and inspired me to acquire a milestone in my Educational endeavour.

I spent many pleasant and profitable days at the following libraries: The American College, Madurai, Thiagarajar College, Madurai, The Madura College, Madurai, Loyola College, Chennai and at the American Studies Research Centre, Hyderabad, where many willing hands helped me to collect a great deal of materials on Chinua Achebe. My thanks are due to the Librarians of all these reputed treasuries of knowledge.
A word of thanks to the typist B. Shenbagaperumal for his neat execution of the thesis on Chinua Achebe.

Above all, glorious tributes are due to the Almighty whose gracious blessings showered on me to do what I can for the readers of Chinua Achebe. May he continue His guidance on my step, all the time in Future. Praise the Lord!

VICTOR SRINIVAS VIJAYAKUMAR