ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Every gift and every enlightenment comes from above. I praise and thank the Lord Almighty for accompanying and blessing me all through my undertakings, with various people and opportunities. I have been blessed with numerous persons without whom I could not have succeeded in my endeavours. My special thanks to each one of them.

I place on record my indebtedness to Prof. G. Prasad, M.Com. B.L., Ph.D., Principal, University College of Arts, Commerce and Law, and Professor of Department of Commerce and Business Administration, Acharya Nagarjuna University, under whose guidance the present study has been made. His versatile, genius and astuteness in guiding, apart from his personal interest, pains taking follow up, all through with his valuable suggestions, stands to credit, for which I am ever thankful.

I am grateful to Prof. T. Sreenivas, M.Com., MBA., M.Phil., Ph.D., Department of Management Sciences, R.V.R. & J.C. College of Engineering, Chowdavarm, Guntur, who has been supportive of my work, enthusiastically following me at every step and being instrumental in introducing me to my mentor and guide Prof. G. Prasad.

The encouragement of our Superior General Rev. Sr. Theresia Supriyati needs special mention, who along with the General Council Sr. Greet, Sr. Regina, Sr. Fabiola and Sr. Vijaya, encouraged me to realize this research programme. My special thanks to Sr. Vijaya for her valuable suggestions and support. I am ever grateful to them.
My cordial thanks to Rév. Sr. Stella Maris, the Provincial Superior who has been generous in relieving me from my many responsibilities and enabling me to attend to this study. My colleagues, the members of the Provincial Council Sr. Emily and Sr. Showrilu have contributed their mite by carrying on extra responsibilities on my behalf.

The involvement and keen interest of the two community Sisters of Snehalaya Provincialate and St. Joseph's Convent, Nallapadu, were a great asset. My special thanks to Sr. Apollonia, Sr. Bala Nakshatram, and each Sister in person for having helped me in shaping my ideas.

My heartfelt thanks to Sr. Gladys Inviolata, the Principal and the faculty of St. Joseph's College of Nursing and Sr. Roseline, the Office Manager and staff for obliging me in all possible ways in the conduct of the study.

My gratitude to Rev. Fr. M. Sunder Babu, Secretary and Correspondent of Morning Star Junior and Degree College, Phirangipuram, for his practical insights and Rev. Fr. Joseph Santhana Swamy, SJ, Principal, St. Xavier's (Loyola) College of Education, Hindupur, and other priests and sisters who assisted me through suggestions and prayers.

I am deeply grateful to the Management of Government General Hospital, NRI Academy of Sciences and St. Joseph's General Hospital, Guntur, who were extremely cooperative in providing me with the needed information for the basis of the study. The Librarians of St. John's Medical College, Bangalore, Indian Institute of Management, Bangalore, M.G.R. University, Chennai, DM&HO Of Hyderabad and Guntur, Apollo Institute of Health Care Management, Hyderabad, National Medical Library, New Delhi, World Health Organization, New Delhi, Dr. NTR University of Health Sciences, Vijayawada, Dr. B.R. Ambedkar Memorial Library, Acharya Nagarjuna University, and all other institutions have no less a share in extending their library facilities, deserve a special mention. I am thankful to them.

My sincere appreciation and gratitude to Rev. Sr. Rosina Antony, JMJ, DR. D. Vijaya Bharathi, Principal, St. Joseph's B.Ed. College, Guntur, DR. T. Anita Susan, Reader & Head of the Department of Zoology and DR. Vijaya Prakasa Rao, Reader in the Department of Commerce, Andhra Christian College, Guntur, Mr. Ravi Chandar for their availability, inspirations and for editing the manuscript.

My sincere thanks to executive staff Mr. Siva Nageswara Rao, Mr. Narasimha Rao, Mr. Joseph, Mr. Sudeep and Mr. M. Francis for typing and printing the manuscript and for the guidance in statistical analysis.

I am indeed grateful to my friends Mrs. Mercedes Pinciro, Mr. Mario Cintero and to their children in Spain for having assisted me to visit hospitals and for their constant support and encouragement.

I am deeply indebted to my parents late Mr. N. Joseph's Naidu and late Mrs. N. Brizethammal for their heavenly blessings. I had the fortune of my family members particularly my beloved brother Mr. N. Irudaya Raj and sisters Mrs. M. Mary Josephine and Rev. Sr. Julian Irudayam, CIC., whose keen interest had been a source of strength.

A host of others have contributed their part, a big thanks to all.
