

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I would like to express my heartfelt thanks to my supervisor, Prof. M. Vijaya Lakshmi, for her kind help and support. Her criticisms, suggestions and encouragement enabled me to strengthen the analyses and discussions in the present study. This thesis would not have been possible without her insightful ideas and conversations before, during and throughout the development of the thesis.

I am highly thankful to Dr.Y.L.Paruchuri, Manager-Department of Microbiology, Dr.S.P.Vasireddi- Chairman and Mr.Bhanu Prasad Vasireddi- Executive Director, Vimta Labs Limited, for their constant support, valuable advice and encouragement during the course of my work.

I am grateful to Mr.M.N.Sastry and Dr.K.Nasaruddin, Bioserve Biotechnologies India, whose help and suggestions helped me during the time of research and at the time of writing the thesis.

I wish to express my gratitude to the people who helped me and trained me in different techniques during the course of my research and thesis writing:

Dr.B.V.Subbaraju, for his helpful insights, troubleshooting and critical evaluation,

Mr.K.Gopinath, for helping in primer designing and protocol standardization,

Mr.J.Chandra Rao, for training in PCR techniques,

Mr.Ravikiran Varma, for gel documentation,

Dr. Durga Bhamidipati, for her critical and helpful suggestions during the thesis writing and to all the staff at Bioserve Biotechnologies India for helping me directly or indirectly during my research.

I would like to thank Dr.P.Haranatha Reddy, for his help in primer designing and manuscript writing.

I want to thank my former colleagues from Vimta Labs, Dr.D.Mohana Ranga Rao Manager-Toxicology Division, Dr.K.Srinivas, Mr.B.V.Suresh Reddy, Mr.P.Sunil Goud, Mr.Y.Srinivas, Mr.M.E.V.L.Narasimharao, Ms. Rukmini for all their help, constant support and interest.

My sincere appreciation goes to Dr. P.B.Kavikishor, for his valuable suggestions and constructive advice, during thesis writing.

I would like to show my appreciation to the people who supported me throughout the current endeavor with their constant encouragement:

Dr.B. Sambasiva Rao – Professor- Dept. of Economics- Nagarjuna University for his invaluable suggestions,

Dr. N. Subramanyam, for his critical evaluation of the thesis,

Mr. Ch. Prasad, for his support and encouragement.

I owe my deep sense of gratitude to my parents, Smt. K. Sadalakshmi and Sri K. Subbarao and my in-laws Smt. N. Padma and Sri. N. Koteswara Rao without whose help and encouragement, I would not have completed my research work. Last, but not least I want to express my appreciation for my wife who stuck with me during the years of searching and researching and long months of writing and re-writing and to my children who gave extra strength and motivation throughout this study.
