ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The study on Nature and Extent of Diversification in Himachal Agriculture: A Study of Mid-Hill Zone was undertaken by me under the able supervision and guidance of Dr. Dalip S. Thakur, Professor, Department of Economics, Himachal Pradesh University, Shimla. I took this opportunity to express my sincere and profound thanks to him for his inspiring guidance, sustained encouragement, keen interest, constructive criticism and stimulating discussions on various aspects of study. During the course of study, I had free access to him and despite his great preoccupations, he was generous enough to extend all assistance even at odd hours.

I am grateful to my wife Motimala and sons Tanmay and Suryansh for their sustained encouragement for the completion of this at the cost of their personal comforts. Right from the day of admission in Ph.D. my wife has been a steady and immense source of inspiration to complete my study.

I would also like to thanks Dr. Sikander Kumar, Chairman in the Department of Economics H.P. University, who made it possible to complete the task. My heart feels thanks are due to Prof. Shyam Prasad, Prof. Meenakshi Sodan, Prof. N.S. Bist and Prof. Aparna Negi in the Department of Economics for their constructive help as and when needed. I am also thankful to other faculty members in the Department for their timely help.

I would like to thank Dr. Bimla Thakur who always encouraged and inspired me during my study period. Thanks are also due to my Principal, Mr. M.S. Jamwal, Shami Mandhotra, my friends Dr. Ram Lal Sharma, Dr. P.L. Verma, Dr. Rikki Ram Kaundal, Dr. Tulshi Raman Sharma, Prakash Chand Sharma and others who helped me.

During the course of collection of the primary and secondary data for this study, number of authorities have helped me in one way or the other. I would like to make a special mention of Dr. Survjeet Singh and Dr. Netar Singh who were kind enough to assist me in the collection of requisite data. I am also thankful to Patwaris, Panchayat Secretaries and Pradhans for the great help rendered in the data collection.

In the collection of secondary data, Director of National Horticulture H.P. Shimla, mCa, Directorate of Economics and Statistics, H.P. Shimla, Directorate of Land Records H.P. Shimla, Directorate of Agriculture Census, H.P. Shimla and Directorate of Agriculture, H.P. Shimla have seen quite helpful and I am highly thankful to them.

The words are not adequate to convey the depth of my feelings of gratitude to my esteemed parents and other family members for their deep affection, inspiration, and constant support without which this work would have merely been a dream for me.

Last but not least I would like to thank Mr. Chaman Lal for typing the manuscript neatly in minimum possible time.
