ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

It gives me immense pleasure to express my heartfelt gratitude to all those people who contributed towards the successful completion of this thesis. It is beyond words to express my deep sense of gratitude to Prof. (Dr.) Santosh Kumar Tripathy, Professor, Department of Personnel Management & Industrial Relations, Utkal University under whose guidance and supervision this work has been carried out and completed. He has not only enlightened my path of learning, but has also been a monumental source of inspiration and strength throughout my research study. I am highly indebted to him for his keen interest, encouragement and invaluable guidance.

This research work is also the result of a continuous support and encouragement of my parents and in-laws who were keen and watchful about my endeavor. They deserve special thanks, and so also my wife, Smt. Gitanjali Panigrahi who acted as a constructive critic and immensely supported in perfectly balancing my professional, personal and academic life throughout. The mentoring and reverse mentoring process during the course of study by my brilliant young daughters Punyatoya and Swayam Sampoorna deserves special appreciation.

I am very thankful to all the employees of National Aluminum Company (NALCO) and Mahanadi Coalfields Limited but for whose support and co-operation the work could not have been completed.

I am also thankful to all those respondents for their honest opinion and help for completing this research work and equally indebted to various researchers whose work I have referred to and unable to name them. From the bottom of my heart, I thank all my friends and well wishers for providing me the much needed help and moral support.

Last and by no means the least, I thank the almighty for giving me the wisdom, guidance and the power to sail through.

Vani Vihar
