With limitless modesty, I would like to thank God and my parents as it was due to their blessings that I could complete my research work.

I consider it my foremost duty to express my deep sense of gratitude to Professor Dr.S.K.Gupta, Vice-Chancellor, H.P.University, Shimla, under whose inspiring guidance I undertook and completed this research work. But for his able stewardship, constructive criticism and innovative ideas, it would not have possible to prosecute this study successfully. His expert guidance, constant care, and abiding interest along with his wide experience and knowledge were a source of much needed inspiration and encouragement throughout the work.

Many institutions have helped me by providing much needed raw material for present thesis. I am thankful to Librarians and staff of H.P.Secretariat, H.P.University, H.P.State Archives, Shimla; National Archives, and Nehru Museum and Library, New Delhi.

I would like to record my thanks and appreciation to Sh.Kathuria, D.F.O., Forest Working Plan and Circle Office, Mandi; Sh.Goyal, S.D.M. Nahan; and Sh.Jaideep Negi, Librarian, H.P.Secretariat, for giving me access to consult the rare material and for their invaluable help.

I am indebted to Sh.Sushil Kumar, D.F.O., Kandi Project, Nahan my elder brother, who not only cooperated with me but also gave valuable suggestions and encouragement. I would also like to mention the cooperation rendered by my friend Sh.Rakesh Kanwar, Deputy Director, Himachal Institute of Public Administration (HIPA), Shimla.

I also express my thanks to Sh.T.G.Negi (I.A.S.), Secretary, Industries (H.P.) Shimla and Mian Goverdhan Singh, Librarian retired, H.P. Secretariat Library, Shimla to provide me cooperation.

The painstaking efforts of Mr.Hind Bhushan Kutlehria for typing the manuscript meticulously are highly appreciated.
