ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

It gives me an immense pleasure and a sense of gratitude to acknowledge my indebtedness to my Research Supervisor, Dr. S.S. Shilwant, Reader in Department of Law, Maharishi Dayanand University, Rohtak. It is due to his valuable guidance and sparing of time despite his other engagement of academic nature that I am able to complete this research work. His keen interest and scholarly guidance in research work has inspired me at every stage of my efforts in the completion of this study. He has not only corrected the draft chapters of the study before finalization but also made necessary contribution at the proper place in almost all the chapters to make this research work more analytical and useful.

I am highly thankful to my learned and respected teacher, Prof. C.P. Sheoran, Head and Dean, Department of Law, M.D. University, Rohtak who afforded me an opportunity to conduct research work on this topic of great significance. His continuous encouragement besides the valuable advice concerning topic of research has also enabled me to complete this study.

I am also indebted to Prof. K.P.S. Mahalwar and Sh. Perduman K. Siwach, Senior Advocate whose constant encouragements made me able to complete this work.

I wish to put on record my sense of gratitude to other teachers of the Faculty of Laws, M.D. University, Rohtak for giving me valuable guidance which helped me at every stage of this research work. I am highly thankful to staff of Law Library, M.D. University, Rohtak for providing me standard books, articles, periodicals, journals and other materials needed to complete this study. I also extend my thanks to the Library Staff at Indian Law Institute, New Delhi who provided me latest and relevant materials to make this study more meaningful and useful.

I am very thankful to my colleagues of Faculty of Law, Rohtak. I also extend my thanks to my family members who boosted me for completion of this work.

Above all I thank Almighty for blessing me to complete this work.
