Acknowledgements

First of all I thank Allah with whose mercy it was possible for me to carry out this study in spite of various difficulties and numerous hurdles.

It is a pleasant obligation on my part to acknowledge my heart-felt gratitude to the many people who over the past three years gave me encouragement, guidance and assistance during the various stages of preparing this thesis. Words are not sufficient to express my indebtedness to my supervisor Prof. Nighet Ahmad for her diligent guidance, comments, constructive criticism, encouragement and moral support for the accomplishment of this work.

My teachers in the Department of Economics have always been very helpful and cooperative and I am thankful to them for the same. I am extremely grateful to Prof. Ashok Mittal, Chairman, Department of Economics who spent his valuable time in sorting out my difficulties especially regarding research methodology. My sincere thanks are due to my teachers Prof. Nisar Ahmed, Dr. Sheroz Rizvi, Dr. Azam Khan, Dr. Mohd Saeed Khan and Dr. Noman Ahmad for their valuable support during my research work.

I express my thanks to Mr. Buniyad, incharge of the departmental library for providing necessary documents from time to time. The office staffs of the Department of Economics, especially Kamran Bhai, though not directly involved, have always been supportive in the background. I am thankful to the library staff of Maulana Azad Library for giving me their ungrudging help whenever I needed it. Thanks are also due to staff members of the online-journal for their whole hearted cooperation. For typing out the thesis I am thankful to Mr. Sharma. He was available whenever I needed his help.

I am thankful to my parents, in-laws, and all my other close relatives especially my sister, Samreen for their supportive attitude and encouragement in completion of this work.

My grateful thanks go to some of my senior research scholars and friends who gave me valuable suggestions and with whom I had discussions and exchanged views on various aspects of my work. In particular, I would like to mention the names of Rahat Zamani, Naheed Akhtar, Mridula Chauna, Jyoti Obia, Faraz, Shabana, Naghma, and Rushda.

My heartfelt thanks are also due to my friends Bilquees, Sadaf, Fariha and Hina who have been an unfailing source of encouragement and help at every stage of my study. My special thanks are due to Shahid bhai my senior research scholar, for his valuable comments and advice.

I shall never be able to pay-off the moral debt owed to my husband, Khateeb and I sincerely wish to appreciate the patience and dedication exhibited by him during the period of my study. He always provided me moral support and stood by me throughout the period of my work.
