ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This thesis is the end of my journey in obtaining my Ph D. Pursuing a Ph D is a both painful and an enjoyable experience. It is just like climbing a high peak, step by step, accompanied with bitterness, hardships, frustration, encouragement, trust and with so many people’s kind help. Though it will not be enough to express my gratitude in words to all those people who helped me, I would like to give my thanks to all these people.

It’s my fortune to gratefully acknowledge the support of some special individuals. First and foremost, I am extremely grateful to my esteemed research guide Dr. A Raghurama, Professor and Chairman, Department of Post-Graduate Studies & Research in Commerce, Mangalore University for his valuable help and encouragement throughout my research work. I deeply appreciate his exceptional grooming for transforming me into an independent researcher. As my guide he has constantly forced me to remain focused on achieving my goal. His observations and comments helped me to establish the overall direction of the research and to move forward with investigation in depth. I am fortunate to have been a post graduate as well as a research student of Professor A Raghurama. I place on record my sincere thanks and gratitude to him.

I thank Dr. P S Yadapadithaya, Registrar, Mangalore University and Professor, Department of Post-Graduate Studies & Research in Commerce, for his encouragement and support.

Words fail me to express my appreciation to Mrs Sucharitha Suresh, Associate Professor, Father Muller’s Hospital for helping with statistical analysis of my research study. Her statistical expertise, assistance and intellectual guidance were invaluable during the analysis and interpretation of the data. During my research study Dr. Suresh Poojary, Dean, Faculty of Commerce, St Aloysius College (Autonomous), Mangalore, offered me a lot. of friendly help. Our conversations enlightened my way of thinking and so I would like to give my sincere thanks to him for his generous help.

I sincerely acknowledge Dr S Gunakar, Faculty, Department of Commerce, Pompei College, Aikala, for his constant encouragement, inspiration and unconditional help. I place on record my sincere gratitude to Dr Abbobakar Siddique for his help and cooperation. I thank Dr Vedava P, Assistant Professor and Mr Parameshwara, Assistant Professor, Department of Post-Graduate Studies & Research in Commerce, Mangalore University and Mr Jagadeesh for their support and hospitality.

I acknowledge the moral support extended to me by my learned friends Dr Srinivasa Giliyar and Dr Suresh Shetty during my research tenure. I wish to thank my best friends Mr Allan Pinto and Mr Wilfred Prakash D'Souza who have been my well-wishers and Mr Praveen D'Souza, Librarian, Aloysius Institute of Management and Information Technology, Bommen, Mangalore for his help in providing the necessary resources related to my research.

I thank Dr Iswara P, Dr M Chandramma, Dr Y Muniraju and Mrs Preethi Keerthi D'Souza, Faculty Members, Department of Post-Graduate Studies & Research in Commerce, Mangalore University for their encouragement. I also thank the teaching as well as non-teaching staff, Department of Post-Graduate Studies & Research in Commerce, Mangalore University for their cooperation and assistance. A special thanks to Mrs Beena, office assistant for her timely help and support.

My work would not have been smooth but for the whole hearted cooperation of all the respondents in furnishing the required information. My thanks to all of them.

The print out this thesis was taken by M/S Shubha Xerox Centre, Balmatta, Mangalore. For executing this job beautifully, I sincerely thank all the personnel in the Shubha Xerox Centre.
A special thanks to my family. I remember my father Late Elias Pinto Shirthady. Its only your prayer for me was what sustained me thus far. Words cannot express how grateful I am to my mother Mrs Epresina Pinto for all the sacrifices that she has made on my behalf. I would also like to acknowledge my parents in law Mr Richard Quadras and Mrs. Juliana Quadras for their moral support.

I would like to express my special appreciation and thanks to my brother Dr Prakash Pinto, Professor and Dean, Department of Business Administration, St Joseph Engineering College, Vamanjoor, Mangalore, you have been a tremendous mentor for me. I would like to thank you for encouraging my research and for allowing me to grow as a researcher. Your advice on both research as well as on my career have been priceless. I also thank my sister-in-law Mrs Jennifer Maria Quadras for her encouragement throughout my research work. I would be failing in my duty if I am not putting on record the affection and care shown to me by my sister Mrs Anitha Pinto and brother-in-law Mr Valerian Montero who stood by me throughout my academic career and I am greatly obliged to them. I am grateful to my uncle Shirthady William Pinto for his encouragement and moral support. I sincerely appreciate the love and affection shown to me by my nieces Ms Vanessa, Ms Vijetha, Ms Dayle and Ms Jewel throughout my research work. I owe my gratitude to my sister-in-law Mrs Ashritha D'Souza and brother-in-law Mr Ronald D'Souza for their encouragement and support.

I owe my loving thanks to my beloved wife Mrs Avitha Maria Quadras, whose patient love, infinite support and encouragement was in the end what made this thesis possible. Your love and constant patience have taught me so much about sacrifice. I fondly remember my sons Master Ethan Pinto and Master Elston Pinto for their funny and imaginative acts that inspired me to let go the tensions of Ph.D.
Above all, I am grateful to God Almighty for the immense blessings that gave me motivation and confidence to complete this work.

For any errors or inadequacies that may remain in this work, of course, the responsibility is entirely my own.
