I prostrate in obeisance before “Almighty Allah” the creator, curator and paramount who bestowed upon to the capabilities and blessed me with the knowledge and wisdom that has culminated in this thesis, certainly it’s a journey to salvation.

I simply fumble for words to express my deep sense of requital and gratitude to my revered supervisor Prof. M. Yunus Khalil Ansari, Deptt. Of Botany, Aligarh Muslim University, Aligarh for supervising me with patience and knowledge whilst allowing me the room to work in my own way in a benign and amity atmosphere; his savvy navigation, tends supervision and equisite guidance has offcourse enhanced the value and prestige of the work carried out.

I feel immense pleasure to express my gratitude to Prof. Arif Inam, Chairman, Deptt. Of Botany, Aligarh Muslim University for providing all necessary facilities to carry out the assigned task efficiently.

I wish to place on records my thanks to Prof. Irshad Mahmood for his timely advice and encouragement in my academic pursuits.

Special thanks are due to funding body, UGC fellowship, for keeping me economically sound and helped to carry out the piece of work in financially well to do environment.

I wish to express my deep genuflection to my parents (Mr. Pervez Ahmed and Mrs. Shahina Sikandar) and grandparents (Late. Md. Shakir Khan & Mrs. Rahat Jahan) for their constant admonitions and for putting up with my uneasy temperament during the stressful times especially my mama, for putting me into this effort and my grandmothers prayers “Thanks Amma your prayers were not in vain”.

I offer my humble feelings and gratitude to my dear sister Deeba, my brother Aquib, brother-in-law Rafat Sultan and dear nephew Arman for encouragement and unequivocal support as always to make the endeavour a success “Thank you guys for always being beside me”

In my daily work I have been blessed with a friendly and a cheerful group of colleagues and I would like to thank them likewise; Mr. Danish for his generous help and healthy suggestions, Honey for often bearing the brunt of my frustration and rages with equanimity, Sana entertained us with her huge repertoire of anecdotes. Zarafshan amused us with her wit and a great no non-sense sense of humour, Alka helped me with her foretelling which were sometimes really applaudable. In particular I would like to thank my friends Aaliya and Nida for being there since my postgraduate days “you are no longer friends you are really sisters to me”. I would also like to acknowledge the forbearance shown and help rendered to me by my friend Razaquia and younger sister like Femina,” your contributions are flawless to me”.

I would like to thank my dear friends Hamid, Shahina, Rose, Ankita, Anushi, Iram and Aasia for their healthy criticism and moral support “Thanks buddies for constinted support during what at times seemed to me a work without end”. My all time loving and favourite senior Friend Laila and naughty juniors Kehkashan, Mahino, Falak “your loves were worth a trillion bucks”. To these pretty ladies Sana, Sadaf, Sadiqa, Naushaba, Habiba and rest to whom I failed to put on record.

Special thanks are acknowledged to Danish Ansari for miscellaneous help. Last but certainly no ways least I would like to thank Nuzhat and Seemab for their computer skills “Thanks dear your help was outstanding”

For any errors or inadequacies that may remain in this work is entirely my own.

“The beginning of knowledge is discovery of something we don’t understand” (Frank Herbert).

ZEBA KHAN