ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I am extremely indebted to a large number of individuals and institutions who have helped me in one way or the other in the preparation of this thesis.

First and foremost, this thesis has been prepared under the able supervision and tutelage of my teacher Dr. P.L. Dharma, Chairman, Department of Post Graduate Studies and Research in Political Science, Mangalore University. But for his untiring guidance, unstinted help and inspiration at all the stages of this work, it would not have been possible for me to prosecute this work. I am indeed fortunate to have been a student of Dr. P.L. Dharma. It has been ineffable for me to express my profound gratitude, deepest sense of indebtedness and reverence to him.

I am greatly indebted to Prof. Valerian Rodrigues, Fellow. Indian Institute of Advanced Studies, Shimla, and also my teacher for his hearty encouragement, timely suggestions and guidance. I express my sincere gratitude to Mr. Jayaraj Amin, Mr. Rajaram Tolpadi, Lecturers, Miss Kasturi, Mrs. Shambavi, Mr. Chandrashekar, Administrative Staff, Department of Political Science, Mangalore University for their kind help and co-operation.

I thank Prof. S. Gopal, honourable Vice-chancellor, Mangalore University and Dr. K. Janardhan, Registrar, Mangalore University for extending the Research Fellowship without which it would have been a difficult task.

I remember the help and moral courage given to me by Prof. Jayaram Hegde, Prof. Jayagopal Uchil, Prof. Surendra Rao, Prof. Raghavendra Rao, Prof. B.S. Barghava, Prof. Radhakrishnan, Prof. Imtiaz Ahmed, Prof. B.V. Shetty, Dr. Jacob John and Dr. D.P. Singh.

My special thanks to Dr. K.R. Shani, Baby Samjotha and Mr. Vinod for their moral encouragement.

I also sincerely remember my well wishers who have encouraged me from the beginning, especially Dr. Mallikarjunappa, Dr. Sridhar, Dr. Pakirappa, Dr. Raghavan, Mr. S.J. Manjunath, Mr. Prabhakar Nirmarga, Mr. Jagadischandra K.K., Mr. Vasanth Shetty, Mr. Krishna Kanchan, Mr. Jayaram Poonja, Mr. Duggappa, Mr. Nithin Kumar Shetty, Mr. Shankar and Mr. Gopalkrishna.

My fellow researchers have spared their valuable time in helping me in different capacities. I thank them, especially, Mr. Dinesh Hegde, Mr. Dayanand Naik, Mr. Suresh K., Mr. Arun Bhagavath, Mr. Vijay, Mr. Prakash Pinto, Mr. Prashanth K.C., Mr. Suryanarayana, Mr. Govind, Mrs. Uditha Prem Kumar, Miss Haseena Banu and Nemiraj.

I am grateful to the farmers of basin areas of both Karnataka and Tamilnadu and the leaders of various farmers associations and leaders of various political parties.

Few institutions like Mangalore University Library, Mysore University Library, Bangalore University Library, Madras Institute of Development Studies, Chennai, Institute of Social and Economic Change, Bangalore, Karnataka Legislative Library, Research and Reference Wing of the Karnataka Legislature, Karnataka Engineering Research Centre, KRS, Mandya District, Office of the Central Water Commission, Mangalore, and Tata Institute of Social Sciences, Mumbai, have greatly helped me in gathering information related to my Research area.
I am emotionally moved by the necessary support given to me for my academic activity in general and Doctoral Research in particular by my Poppa, Amma, Ajji, Uncle Raghav Shetty and Shekar Shetty, Brothers Dr. Gananath Yekkar, Keshav, Padma, Dhamu, Ramesh, Suddi, Brother-in-laws Yathish and Srinivas, Sisters Shobha, Chanda, Nalini and Jaya.

Finally I thank M/s. Shubha Xerox, Mangalore for typing this thesis timely and neatly.
