A journey of a thousand miles begins with one step – Lao-tzu

Every journey must have a beginning and so does mine. Arduous as it may seem, it is amazing how the guiding hand of the Almighty can lead you on, amidst the encircling gloom. As I reach the end of what seems a truly long journey, I pause to reminisce those moments and fondly remember all those who have made my journey not only memorable but meaningful as well.

My heart goes out first, to the Creator, the master craftsman of my being, for having brought me into this wonderful world.

I owe my gratitude to my guide Dr. V. Shantha, Professor and Head, Department of English, JyothiNivasCollege (Autonomous), Bangalore, whose insightful comments and constructive criticisms at different stages of my research were thought-provoking and helped me focus on my ideas and give finesse to my sculpture.

I would like to place on record my heartfelt gratitude to Dr. Fr. Thomas C. Mathew, Hon. Vice Chancellor of Christ University who has been a great source of inspiration throughout my career at Christ University; Pro Vice Chancellor and Director of the Centre for Research, Dr. Fr. Abraham Vettiyankal, for reposing more faith in me than I myself do; Dr. Fr. Varghese K.J., Chief Finance Officer, for his encouraging words and Dr. Anil Pinto, Registrar for his moral support.

I am indebted to Dr. S. Srikantaswamy, Additional Director, Centre for Research, whose constant support and guidance helped me overcome many a crisis situation and see through this dissertation. My thanks are also due to the Centre for Research, Mr. Sreekumar Nair, Librarian, Knowledge Centre, Christ University and Dr. Samson Victor, School of Education, Christ University for all the help rendered.

I am truly grateful to Professor U.R. Ananthamurthy, Kannada writer, litterateur and critic for having graciously accepted to be interviewed despite his indisposition. His intellectual prowess and acumen left me in awe and wonder. I would also like to thank Mr. Leo Thangaraj from the Centre for Concept Design for documenting the interview.

My deepest gratitude is due to my husband, Dr. P. Krishnaswami, my philosopher, guide and critic for his constant prodding and unflinching support rendered during my moments of distress; and our two sons, Sharath and Dinesh, for their tolerance and understanding whenever I flew off the handle.

It is with a profound sense of affection that I remember my deceased parents to whom I dedicate this project; and my brothers and sisters who have always been a source of love and strength.

I sincerely appreciate the efforts of all whose encouragement and guidance helped me on my path and finally a word of thanks to all my friends whose goodwill has made this dissertation see the light of day.

May this journey be the beginning of many more!

MALLIKA KRISHNASWAMI
