ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

“Talent alone cannot make a writer,
There must be somebody behind the book”

First of all I would humbly thank God, who provided me with the opportunity and environment to complete my Doctoral thesis.

I am thankful to the Vice Chancellor, Banasthali University and the Research Board for allowing me to work on the present topic.

I owe my unbounded and eternal sense of gratitude to my supervisor Professor Dr. Sophie Titus, Head, Physical Education Department, Banasthali University, whose contribution in few lines may be inadequate. In spite of busy schedules, she spared long hours in providing me scholarly and competent guidance, discerning supervision, judicious suggestions and constructive criticism during the entire period of my research work. Her pertinent ability to probe into the research problem has prodded me to find answers, which subsequently made this study a prolific and pleasant one.

Words would not be sufficient to pay thanks to Dr. Lalit Sharma, Reader, Indira Gandhi Institute of Physical Education and Sports Science, University of Delhi, who was instrumental in the formulation of the title. His immense knowledge, deep insight, tireless zeal, keen interest, sincere efforts, great patience and valuable suggestions enabled me to work in the right perspective and bring about the successful completion of this study.
My sincere thanks and greatest regard to Mr. P. K. Sahgal, Chairman and Mrs. Usha Sahgal, principal Adarsh Public School, New Delhi, for allowing me to do the research work and avail the facility such as data collections from the students of Adarsh Public School and their timely help, and support given to me, which not only inspired me but also kept my morale up and gave immense encouragement and support during the study.

My sincere thanks to Reader Mrs. Gauri Chkraborty and Asst. Professor Meenakshi, Indira Gandhi Institute of Physical Education and Sports Science, University of Delhi, for providing me their indispensable expertise and valuable guidance in statistical analysis of data.

I also owe a heavy debt of gratitude and sincere regards to my brother in law Mr. Ashok Kumar Pandey and sister in law Mrs. Prachi Pandey for their timely suggestions and help for this work.

Among those of my friends, who stimulated my thinking, I would make special mention of Mr. Joginder teacher in Govt. School Janak Puri, Mrs. Kamini Guleria teacher in SKV Janak Puri, Mrs. Geetanjali Bharadwaj, Mrs. Richa Bhatnagar, Mr. Satyam Chakma, Mrs Vandana Khanna and Miss Shefali Jain teacher in Adarsh Public School, Sapna Chauhan teacher in R.D Rajpal School Dwarka, Mrs Kavita teacher in Rashtrashakti School, Mrs. Kailash teacher in St. Cecilia Public School, New Delhi, Asst. Professor Shikha Sharma in Ramanujan college, Dr. Vibha Pathak teacher in G D Goenka Public School Agra.

I am extremely thankful to all the students of various schools and colleges who acted as subjects in this study. Without their active cooperation and enthusiastic participation, this study could not have been completed in the desired way.

I also offer my thanks to the Library staff of Banasthali University, Indira Gandhi Institute of Physical Education and Sports Science, Kurukshetra University, Kurukshetra and Rajasthan University, Jaipur.

I am unable to find appropriate words to put on record for my family members. I pay my respect to my father in law Mr. D.P. Pandey for his support and encouragement, mother in law Mrs. Usha Pandey for her patience and tolerance, thanks to my husband Mr. Manish Kumar Pandey for motivation, thanks with love to elder brother Mr. Vikas Tripathi and sister in law Mrs. Namita Tripathi for providing me all the possible support in the form of computer peripherals and accessories as and when required, thanks to elder sister Mrs. Indu Malviya and brother in law Mr. Sushil Malviya for timely support and understanding and last but not least, my love to kids Aditya, Shivangi, Prarthana, Apransh and Araadhya for not spending time with them. They gave me confidence and hope. No endeavor of mine would have been successful without their love and blessings.

I also express my gratitude to all the authors whose books / research work have been referred to in this study.

Everything cannot be mentioned but nothing forgotten.

Abha Pandey
