

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I am extremely delighted to extend my gratitude to Dr. A.K. Srivastava Reader, P.G. Department of Geology, Amravati University who not only exposed me to the specific problem of Purna Basin but also provided me the kind valuable help, encouragement, guidance and support. I am indebted to him for excellence response, critical review of the work, suggestions and guidance thereon, dealt untiringly with brunt of responsibilities. I express my reverence and gratitude for critical reading in improving and placing the work in the lofty sequence.

The acknowledgement is greatly made to Dr. S.F.R. Khadri, Head, P.G. Department of Geology, Amravati University for providing me the opportunity to work and put a comprehensive findings in filling the gaps on various aspects of Purna alluvial basin, not attempted before. The courtsey and cooperation shown is sincerely acknowledged.

I wish to express the special thanks to Mr. Radheysham Mopalwar, Director, Groundwater Surveys & Development Agency, Government of Maharashtra whose vision towards resource management inspired for this work.

I acknowledge my warm thanks to the people of the research area for furnishing valuable technical informations, answering many questions with warm hospitality which provided a strong base in understanding their views towards resource management.

It gives me a great pleasure to acknowledge the names of well wishers who without affecting their routine work, helped me in finalizing this voluminous work. I am indebted to Mr. D.B. More and Mr. R.C. Garud for excellent advice and direction on presentation of maps. I am also indebted to Mr. M.S. Adole, Mr. N.K. Chaudhary and Mr. D.A. Thakre for reviewing the manuscript thus completing the strenuous work of arranging in sequence effectively. Their accomplishment is sincerely and thankfully acknowledged.

Finally, and by no means least, I am most grateful to Mr. S.G.Jain, Mr. R. R. Aswale and Mr. S.C. Asodekar who helped me with efficiency in the whole endeavor.

My overriding debt continues to be to my wife Umrana Siddiqui for her sustained interest as an individual triumph. Without her support no work of this magnitude could be accomplished.

(Mobin A. Siddiqui)

Amravati

Dated : 4.6.2004