ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Working towards a doctoral degree has been a long journey and I have been fortunate to have received invaluable help from many individuals during the different stages of my research.

Firstly, my immense debt to my research supervisor Dr. M. Jamuna, Professor and Chairperson, Department of History, Bangalore University, for her patience, endless help, keen observation, discerning comments and her motherly affection and care made possible completion of the thesis.

For the invaluable ideas that shaped my understanding of the theme I have been fortunate enough to have interacted regularly with renowned scholars Prof. A Sundara and my beloved uncle Dr. Sheelakanth Pattar, who directed me during my field work and for clarifications sought even while drafting the thesis. My special thanks to Dr. Pattar and Mrs. Pattar for their hospitality during my stay at Badami.

I owe a special debt of gratitude to Prof. Srinivasa Padigars, Dharwad Universtiy and Prof. S.K. Joshi Dharwad for their valuable suggestions and support extended to me during my research.

I am very much obliged to Prof. G.B. Degulkar, Chancellor, Deccan College, Dr. Poonacha retired Archeologist, Prof. Devaru Konda Reddy epigraphist, Prof. Kori Settar Dharwad Universtiy, Dr. Keshav Superintending Archaeologist, A.S.I (Bangalore Circle), Dr. Nagnoor A.S.I (Dharward Circle), Prof. U.R. Moorti Tumkur University, Dr. S.K. Aruni, Regional Director ICHR southern Regional Centre, Bangalore, Dr. Jnananand Scholar, Bangalore, and Dr. Gillian Juleff, University of Exeter.

My Thanks are also due to all my teachers in the Department of History, Bangalore University for their encouragement and also the non-teaching Staff for their help.

My special thanks are to due my father Sri Yamanappa Pattar, mother Smt. Susheela Pattar, Smt. Bhuvaneshwari Pattar, my brothers, Sister and daughter Sinchana. I am also Thankful to my Uncle Dr. Kammar family for Patent support and who sustained my indifference to them while the work was in progress.

Several of my friends have stood by me in expediting the completion of work: Rajanna G, Naveen B.N, Pavitra Devi, Vinaya Birade, Vijaya kumar N, and J. Satya kumar, Mahesh H, Badrinath, Manjunath and Sridhar. I am ever grateful to them.

I also thank the Principal, Smt. Sreeja J. Pratap, Smt Jyothi Nataraja, Charu Agrawal and Collagues of Sri Chaitanya Techno Schools for their support.

My thanks are to ISKCON temple devotees Chanchalapati Das, Amitasana Das, Kula Shekara Chaitanya Das and Rasa Parayana Das.

I am grateful to my Engineer friends Sr. Engineer Raghavendra S. Medleri and Junior Engineers Mruthunjay B. Katageri and Sachin D. Pednekar for the accurate measurements, and drawings which have helped in an understanding of the technical aspects of the forts.

Satellite pictures captured by Dr. Janaradhna, Archeologist, A.S.I Dharward Cirice, Dharwad, have been used to understand the topography and habitation areas which have been of great help in tracing the fortification at Aihole, Badami, Pattadakal, and Alampur at ground level.

I am very thankful to Neelesh of Aihole, Basappa and Ansari of Badami who accompanied me during my field visits.

My sincere thanks to Mr. Sadananda Holla, Copy Editor and Mr. Anup S. Holla of Krishna DTP Centre, Malleshwaram for the neat layout and typing.

I would be failing in my duty if I do not thank Dr. Vasudha and Mrs. Malini M, for their sisterly love and help extended to me.

To all these persons and many others whom I may have inadvertently failed to mention here go my hearty thanks. Last but not least, I am every indebted to Almighty for showering blessings on me which gave me courage and strength to complete the Thesis.

Umesh Pattar Y.
