Acknowledgements

I express my gratitude to Prof. Kuldeep Mathur under whose guidance and supervision, I worked on this thesis. He went through the drafts at various protracted stages of its completion, suggesting modification, corrections and often new insights into problem, at the same time allowing me to develop my own new ideas.

I am grateful to Prof. Anil. K. Gupta, Indian Institute of Management Ahmedabad, not only financed my trip to the Institute but provided constructive suggestions and support during my visit. I also thank other members of SRIISTI for their affection and kind cooperation.

I thank Ajay N. Jha, DFO, East Midnapore Division, M. Saha, Range Officer, Arabari Forest for their support in conducting my field survey. I am also grateful to ‘Choton’ for providing with all types of local help in Salboni and Mr Sukumar Ghosh, SDO, Salboni for making arrangements for my stay. My thanks to Lokmani Bhatt, Forest Panchayat Inspector, Baramandal, Almora; Sarpanch of Khatyari village and A. Joshi of Ganai for their hospitality and help.

Most importantly I am grateful to the villagers of Gobarda, Dhyangsole, Sakhisole in Midnapore and Khatyari, Chauntra, Guna, Bhaktola, Bainar, Selagari Pan and Thaman in Almora. They have spent their valuable time in providing me with insights and cleared my understanding on many complex issues. Without their cooperation it would have been difficult finishing my work.

I am grateful to my uncles Sri. Sujit Datta and Amit Datta and my aunt Mridula Datta for making things easy and comfortable for me in Midnapore.

I extend my gratitude to the staff of JNU Library, DSA (CPS/SSS) Library, Teen Murti House, New Delhi, Indian Institute of Public Administration, New Delhi for this cooperation and help in collecting my research material. I also thank G. P. Pant Institute of Himalayan Studies, Kosi Almora and Society for Promotion of Wasteland Development, New Delhi for their help in library consultation.
I am thankful to the staff of CPS Office, School of Social Science (II) Office and especially Mrs. Kakkar for their cooperation. I thank Sushma Arya, NIEPA, New Delhi for her help.

My friend, L.R. Gopinath patiently accompanied me in all my trips to Almora. Without him my work would not only have been delayed but it would have been impossible for me to stay in remote areas for days. I thank him whole heartedly.

Thanks to all my colleagues and friends at J.N.U. for their help and encouragement in several ways especially, Milly Roy, Ranjita, Karabi, Kasturi, Huma, Sharmistha, Disha, Anupam, Aditi & Probir.

I thank ICSSR, New Delhi for financing this work.

A special word of thanks to Mr. Anil Pawar of A.P. Computers and his colleagues D. Dabas and Unnikrishnan for efficiently typing this work.

Finally my sincere gratitude to my family members for all their support especially my parents for their remarkable patience, understanding and help in all possible ways.

Pampa Mukherjee